WELCOME TO OUTLOOK MAGAZINE. THE FORMAT YOU HAVE SEEN BEFORE BUT THE PHOTOS ARE A LITTLE MORE RECENT. WE WANT TO CONTRIBUTE SOMETHING POSITIVE TOWARD THE BETTERMENT OF OUR COMMUNITY BY PROVIDING THESE PAGES TO PROMOTE AND RECORD LOCAL EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED OVER THE PAST TEN YEARS. SOME SAY THE COUNTRY IS MORE THAN A LITTLE PESSIMISTIC AT THE MOMENT. INDEED WE HAVE A POLITICAL SYSTEM THAT FINANCIALLY REWARDS AND REINFORCES INADEQUACY AND FAILURE WHETHER IT BE ASSISTANCE TO BUSINESSES, FARMS OR PEOPLE. BUT HERE AT OUTLOOK WE ARE TAKING THE POSITIVE HEALTHY VIEW THE VIEW THAT REWARDS AND ENCOURAGES INITIATIVE, ACTIVITY AND SUCCESS AND BY DOING SO HOPEFULLY STIMULATES PEOPLE IN THAT DIRECTION. THIS IS YOUR MAGAZINE, ABOUT YOU AND YOUR TOWN, SO IF YOU ARE PART OF SOMETHING GOOD AND YOU OR YOUR GROUP, CLUB OR ASSOCIATION IS MAKING THE EFFORT, WE'LL SHOW EVERYONE SO THAT ALL MAY BENEFIT AND WE CAN GROW.

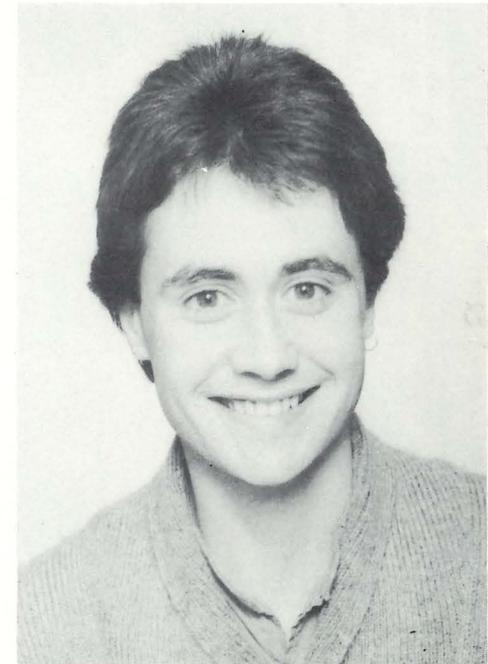

THERE ARE MANY BUSINESSES BACKING THIS PUBLICATION AND WITHOUT THEIR ADVERTISING WE WOULD NOT BE ABLE TO BRING IT TO YOU AT THE LOW COVER PRICE. WE HOPE YOU APPRECIATE THEIR CONTRIBUTION. THANK YOU FOR BUYING OUR FIRST ISSUE AND SHARING THE BEGINNING OF WANGANUI OUTLOOK.

Outlook is totally a Wanganui operation with production shared by two Wanganui firms. The Wanganui Camera Centre is responsible for the photography side and Hanton and Andersen are the printers.

Pictured here is Bob Kenworthy who has recently joined the Camera Centre staff as the Outlook photographer. You can contact Bob on 56-144 to get your event listed for coverage.

Wanganui's big event for May was 'Exhibit 80' designed as a showcase of Wanganui enterprise. Clubs, groups, organisations and businesses joined together to make the event a worthy success.

ABOVE : "Now if the escort will tow it and if I can fit it down the side of the house, I wonder how long before Mum will find it."

LEFT : On at the same time and just as popular was the amusement park.

Over 10,000 people went through the exhibition which spread throughout the Memorial Hall and over the forecourt.

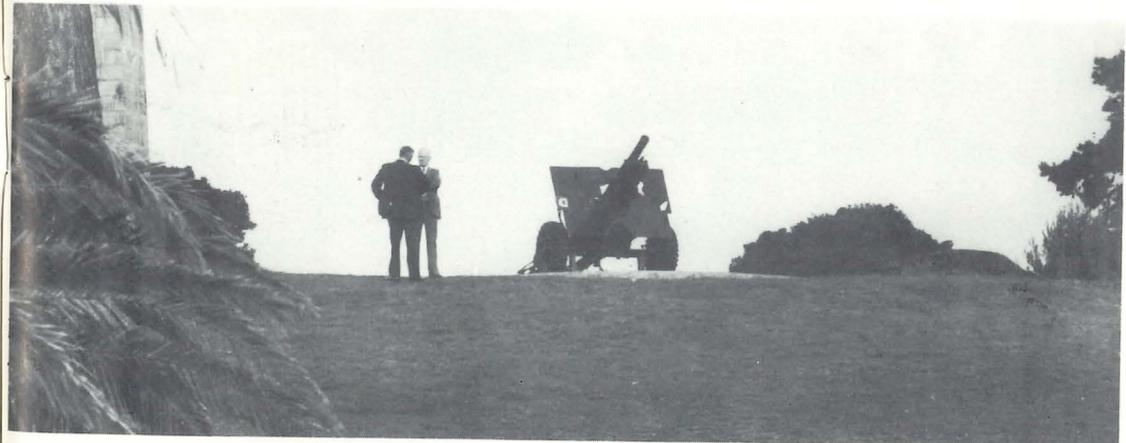

BELOW : The army provided interesting displays. Among them this 400 lb gun.

Wanganui gained a lot of publicity from Exhibit 80 and clubs and businesses alike gained from their participation. Clubs found new members and businesses sold their product and everyone had a good time.

ABOVE : Spectators sit on the stage used by the Brass bands and await the gymnastics demonstration.

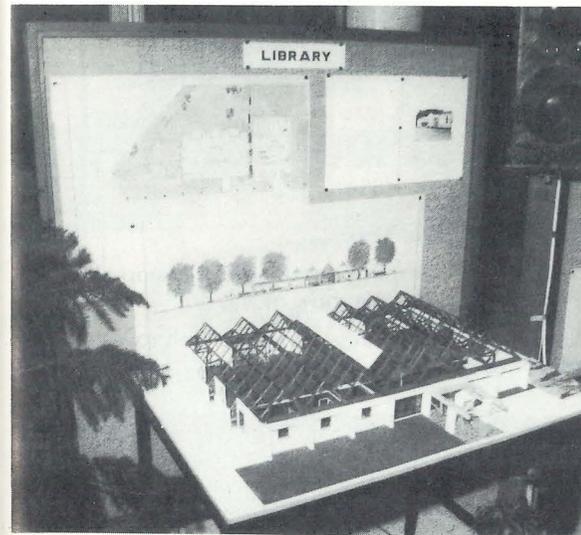

BELOW : Crowd control?

ABOVE : The Golden Coast China Decorators displayed fine examples of their art. Each piece is painted and fired up to 10 times in order to gain a good depth of colour.

BELOW : Operating the Colin McLachlan retirement kit is Ray Davies and John Richardson obscured, while Gerald Weekes looks on. The layout, a Marklin HO is owned by Max Boyd and will run 3 trains at once. It won first prize for best working model.

Over 100 different stalls and displays were featured so we could only print a few.

ABOVE : The Wanganui Branch of the Model Car Club displayed a variety of model vehicles both static and mobile.

BELOW : The Wanganui Horticultural Society's floral display.

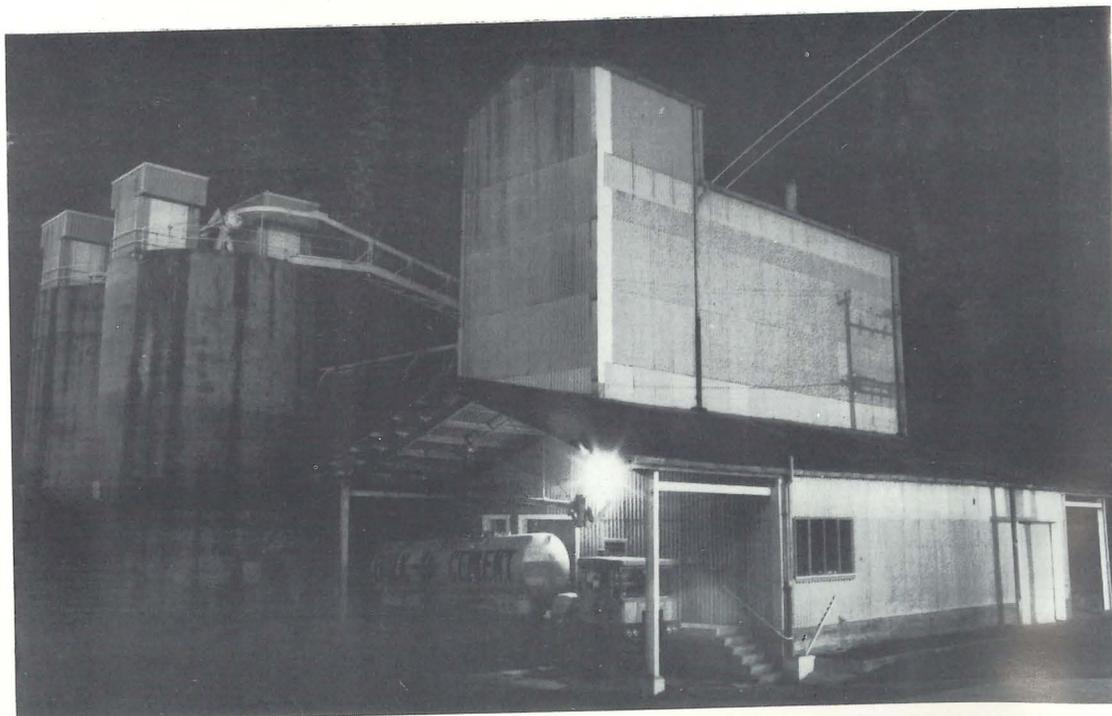

LEFT : A model of the library at a similar stage to the photos also in this issue.

ABOVE : While the Government drills holes in the ground gambling for oil, children pop ping pong balls down holes in the hope of a prize. A lot of fun but the show moves on.

BELOW : The Golden Bay storage depot made a good night time study. How was Bob to know a friendship would take off and leave trails of light above the roof.

Build a Beazley. Win an Allegro.

One winner in every 60 home purchasers!

HURRY!
BUY BEFORE
JULY 31st

Here's the best bet any new home buyer's ever made. Build a Beazley and be in to win an Austin Allegro 1300 Super from New Zealand Motor Corporation.

What a great start in life — a new home and a new car!

With every 60 homes sold before July 31st there'll be a new winner. So if you're in the market for a new home there's never been a better time to talk to Beazley. Your Beazley Home Consultant will show you how easy it is to build with us — and how easy it can be to win.

Beazley build more homes for young New Zealanders than any other builder so we understand your problems — and how to solve them. See our full range of plans and choose the home that suits your way of life. We're ready to build for you now (on your section or one of ours).

You couldn't build better than Beazley.

And you could end up with a new Austin Allegro 1300 Super in the driveway — absolutely free. Clip the coupon and call your local Beazley Home Consultant today. See the list below.

$2,500 plus Free — It's not too late!

The Government have extended the time limit on their free $2,500 Suspensory Loan offer to first home buyers. But it's not expected to remain in effect for much longer. Don't miss out — use it while you still can buy your own Beazley home.

What's more the Beazley Free Gift offer of up to $4,000 off the price of home and section packages is still available in some areas. Ask your Beazley Home Consultant for more details.

ABOVE : One activity that fascinates the public as much as its participants is the art and skill of aero modelling. The Wanganui Aero Modellers Club held a display on the 4th May at the airport, and there was a good turnout for the event. In the foreground is Kevin Pert and Junior, behind, Bob McCready.

ABOVE : Bob McCready demonstrates his model helicopter. For three years a hobbyist and $1400 later we hope he is enjoying it.

The Museum is always coming up with new displays and to coincide with Exhibit 80 museum artist Jean Frank, assistant Peter Calkin and Director Don Cimino set up an 1880 display of a parlour scene 100 years ago. BELOW : At the Art Gallery in the Scottish Tapestry Exhibition was this piece called 'Africa Woman' by Sarah Soulesby.

ABOVE : On the 26th April, Nicky Rush and John Collins were married at St. Marys. Nicky wore a polyester satin gown with a chiffon and lace overlay.

LEFT : Also wearing white, but by no means a blushing bride, was actor and entertainer John Pertwee here for one night at the Red Pepper. John wraps frogs in kleenex!

Club rugby reached an early high point this season in the clash between Marist and Kaierau.

OUTLOOK PHOTOGRAPHS

We've taken a lot of photos over the past few weeks and we've printed only some of them. Bob and Les at the Camera Centre have printed proof sheets of all events covered. You are welcome to come and look them over and order prints for your own use.

If you have a snapshot you think will look good in Outlook, drop it in to the Camera Centre. If we like it, we'll print it.

Kiwi St. School was the venue for holiday activities organised by the St. James Presbyterian Church for 7-12 year olds. Activities featured singing, dancing, art and craftwork.

Kiwi St. School. Amongst the jumble of children were Tracey Ross, Michelle Farrer, Louise Lovell, Turanga Teawhe, Graham Sullivan and Robert Wall.

The Wanganui Boys and Girls Club celebrated the completion of their new dismounting pit in style with a gymnastic demonstration.

The pit measures 6x3 metres, 2 metres deep and is a first in N.Z. Financed by Round Table and many local contributors, this new facility will draw top gymnasts to Wanganui to train.

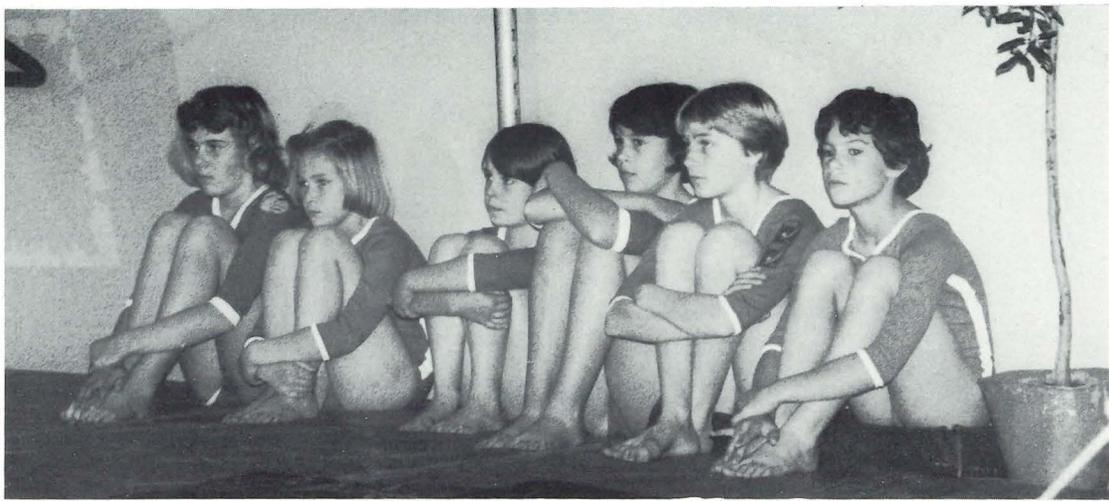

ABOVE : And in they go! Aply assisted by Karen and Jens Bukholt, the young gymnasts try out the new pit. Joanna Butters somersaults while Jens guides her through.

BELOW : Either Craig Springer and Mark Glasgow are suspended and Peter Chen has a strong arm, or our camera has caught a good attempt to break the ribbon.

BOTTOM : Foam chips now fill the concreted hole. 36 cubic metres of soil was painstakingly removed by parents and friends of the club members. Many such pits overseas use water, but however one lands, foam rubber must beat a belly flop in water!

TOP : Shifting dunes at Castlecliff have always been a problem but now they've reached the Avenue. We're glad the Council has done something about it. ABOVE: Gary, Pete, Ron, Tom Carter and Clarrie box on with the work.

When the boat comes in.
 FAR PAGE : Oyang 5, now a regular visitor to Wanganui, unloads its catch into waiting containers ready for shipment to overseas market-places. THIS PAGE : Crossing the bar, the biggest cargo since the war to land at Castlecliff Wharf, should quell controversy over the future of our port. The Golden Bay landed over 3,000 tonnes of cement and filled storage facilities to capacity. It is interesting to note that despite the fact that Oyang 5 is a considerably smaller vessel, she sits deeper in the water than the Golden Bay.

ABOVE : The Golden Bay making a graceful turn as it draws to a safe and successful anchorage. BELOW : Beautiful weather drew a huge crowd to witness the event that many thought would never happen.

ABOVE : A Victorian chair goes under the hammer at Alexanders antique auction. Antique auctions are as popular as ever, possible because the antiques are getting older than ever.

RIGHT : Shaun the terrible tiger meets Mike Dally the terrible news reader. Actually only one of those statements is true. Over the holidays the Maria Mall ran a talent quest and children competed with singing, dancing, reciting, playing records and telling jokes.

The Sacred Heart Convent celebrated 100 years of the Sisters of St. Joseph in N.Z. this May. The original sisters arrived in Wanganui on 3 May 1880 and over 20,000 former pupils and friends gathered at the Convent for the festivities. BELOW : Opening the celebrations (from left) Sr Marie, Sr Adrian, Mr Brian Alexander (Chairman, Board of Governors), Mr Ivan Smithies, (Chairman, Centennial Committee), Father Fitzpatrick, Sr Kevin and Sr Elizabeth Clare. The latter are the eldest and youngest serving sisters of the order.

TOP : Many of the guests reunite. Behind stands the Watt Home. Remodelled and relocated, it is almost 100yrs old.

TOP : The Convent's future is somewhat uncertain as plans to rebuild the near sections are currently being aired.

ABOVE : Sr M. Genevieve delighted to meet two former pupils and sisters, Kathleen (Kitty) and Mary Ann O'Sullivan.

ABOVE : Class with a difference. Standards 2 and 3 from Churton St. School under the tutelage of Mr Plant, enjoy a visit to the Art Gallery.

ABOVE : Wedding bells for Anne Marie Penman and Edward (Ted) Bates. Anne is a keen equestrian and recently took part in training and trials during a European holiday. Ted is a farmer from Tangiwai where the couple are now living.

ABOVE : Lonely vigil raising funds for the Olympic Team.

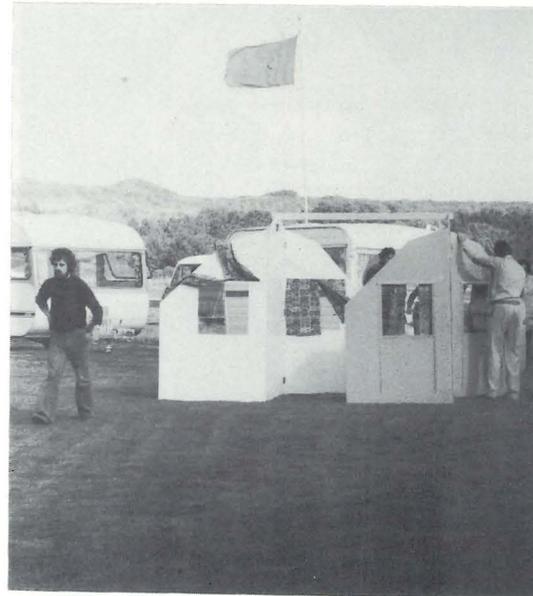

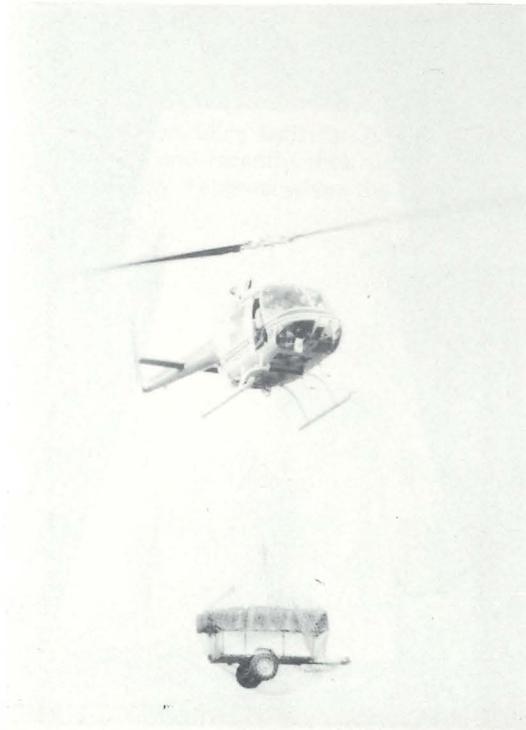

BELOW : The Riverside was the venue for the Gonville Kindergarten's fashion parade held before a capacity audience. Cornish's supplied the garments here modelled by:- LEFT : Tracey Workman in a hooded sweat shirt and jeans and RIGHT : Margaret Milcs in a white negligee set.

How do you tell everyone how versatile a Packaway Cabin is? Ross Cotton from 'Light-weight caravans' answer was to helicopter in a cabin and erect it on the spot before keen observers, in under 10 minutes.

ABOVE : Half way through assembly.

Forever turning up around town is a Wanganui Car Club event. Pictured here is the Sunday Auto Cross at Kowhai Park. The Club has a membership of about 100 who delight in acquiring driving skills useful, but perhaps illegal on city streets. The club is a focal point for car enthusiasts and here 22 took part.

ABOVE : Kermit Gould driving an early model Keith leaps toward the finish, hopefully before the car croaks.

BELOW : Andrew on the return journey.

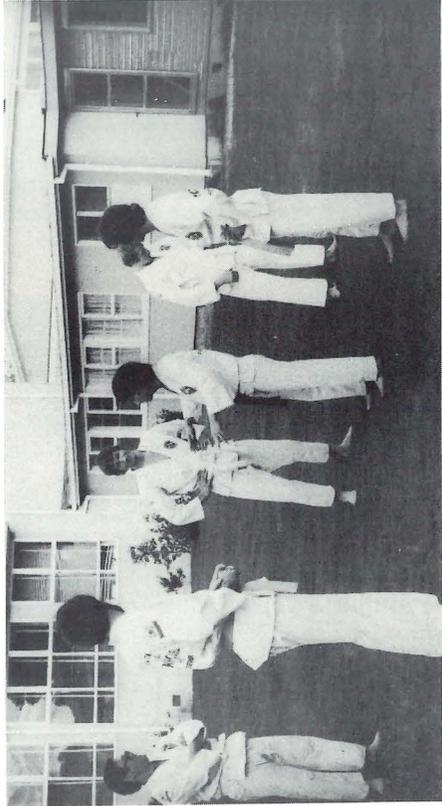

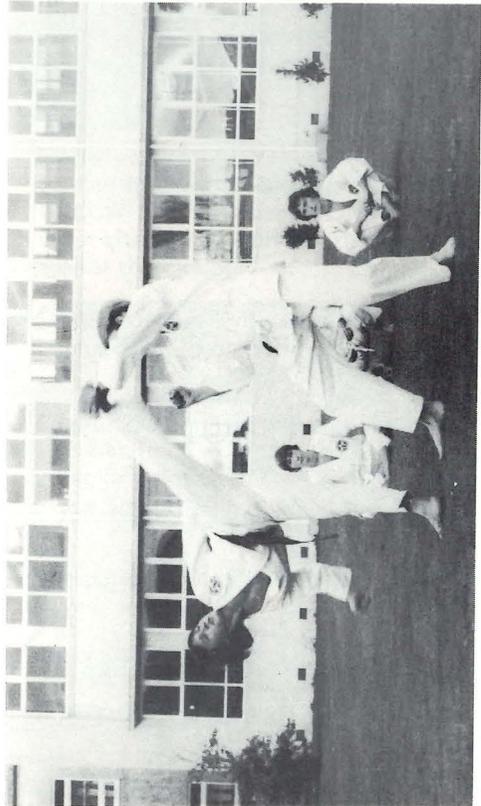

There are times when it would be nice to be an Anglia! Girls College 4BS ran a car wash as part of their fund-raising to send 100 fourth form girls to Curious Cove in November.
BELOW : Also curious are James and Bill Rourangi, Albie Tamatea and Beamish Kingi enjoying a rest after a days work for the City Council. They're curious about their upcoming rugby game against the Fire Station.

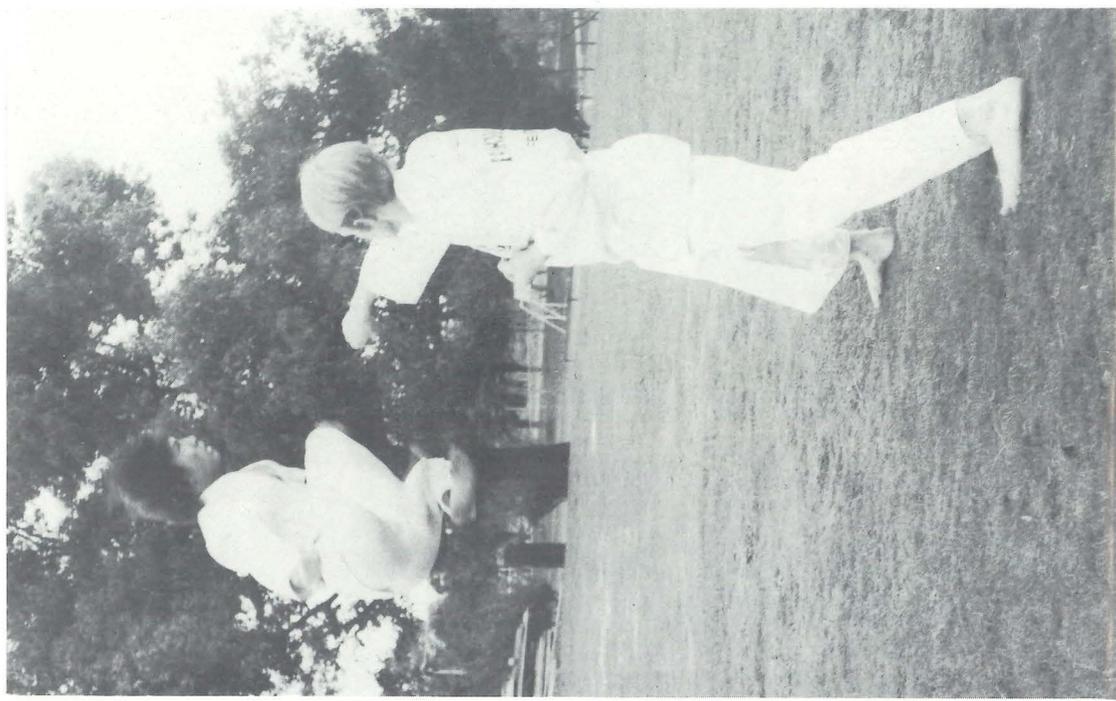

We owe our magnificent cover to Des Bovey who loaned us one of his recently completed deer series for publication. Des is a local artist and is known for his recent publication of "Wanganui Buildings of Historical Interest" for which he did the illustrations.

The complete series is shown here and all are painted in the water colour medium. Inspiration for the works came from his younger days when Des used to hunt deer but now he prefers to capture a deer with a brush rather than a bullet. The deer depicted are from top left: Fallow, found around Wanganui, Wapiti (Fiordland); Red stag (Stewart Is.) and Sambar (along the Wanganui coast).

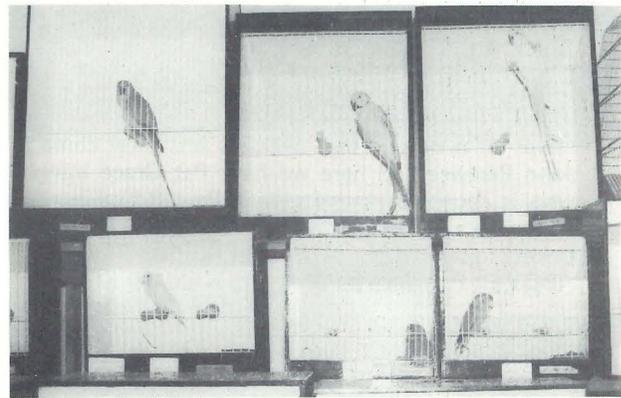

For the detailed work Des uses skins and life studies and makes field trips for habitat sketches. We'll see more of this series as Tanner Couch commissioned the paintings for a calendar they intend to produce for 1982.

A welcome new resident to Wanganui is Mr Tai Troung, formerly a dentist from Vietnam. Mr Troung is a 2nd Dan black belt, and teaches Tae Kwon Do to a group of students 5 nights a week in the Girls College gym.
RIGHT : Mr Troung performs a flying jump kick on Keith Butters and

Never let it be said that overseas acts never come to Wanganui. Elsewhere in this issue we have John Pertwee and here we have Pat Grace interviewing "Window Cleaner" Robin Askworth who is about to compete with Paul Rowe in a window cleaning competition at Wrightcars. Paul won a bottle of whisky and Mr. Askworth had to content himself with 2nd prize - 2 free tickets to see himself perform at the Opera House!
ABOVE : Pop Group Racey and Keen Kiwi.

TOP : Mr & Mrs Kennerley and Mr Reasbeck from Hawkes Bay view some of the 980 birds gathered from Auckland to Christchurch.
ABOVE : A box of birds. You would feel that way too if you were worth $1500 as these six are.

Sportsman of the Year came around rather fast and Moutoa Lions put on another popular sportsmans dinner for the occasion.

Beverley Shingles took away the title mainly for her run in the Los Angeles International Women's marathon and her victory in the Inaugural NZ women's marathon. Ross Tong won the junior award. He stroked in the NZ junior crew which won the Petite Final in the world Champs in Russia. RIGHT : Lance Cross, Chairman of the NZ Olympic and Commonwealth Games Association, flanked by Barbara Baxter of the selection panel and John Deroles the Lions President was guest of honour.
