THANK YOU FOR THE POSITIVE RESPONSE TO OUR FIRST ISSUE AND THANKS FOR SHARING IN THE SECOND. SOME PEOPLE THOUGHT WE WERE A LITTLE CRAZY STARTING PUBLICATION IN THE MIDDLE OF WINTER BECAUSE IF THERE IS ONE TIME WHEN PEOPLE ARE LEAST LIKELY TO BE OUT AND ABOUT AND DOING THINGS IT MUST BE NOW. BUT WE ARE AMAZED, THERE IS SO MUCH GOING ON! AND WITHIN A SHORT TIME OF PUBLICATION OUR PHONE WAS RINGING WITH INFORMATION ABOUT UPCOMING ACTIVITIES. WITH THIS RESPONSE SO FAR, WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO A GREAT SUMMER.

SO THE OUTLOOK IS FINE AND THRIVING AND WE WOULD LIKE TO HEAR FROM YOU IF YOU OR YOUR CLUB WOULD LIKE TO SHARE IN OUTLOOK AND RAISE FUNDS BY SELLING IT DOOR TO DOOR. WE PRINT EVERY FOURTH SATURDAY AND DELIVERIES TAKE ABOUT 2½ HOURS ON THE MORNING. CALL THE CAMERA CENTRE ON 56144. WE'LL BE GLAD TO HELP YOU HELP US TO HELP YOU.

Four times a year the young Highland dancers in the lower N.I. area meet together in competition. Wanganui has a small team but was well pleased with its results in the June events. Photographed on the stairs: Carla Terry, Kathryn Cowper, Tania Vallance, Toni Grant and Melinda Weeks.

BELOW: Tania Vallance and Belinda McEwan perform.

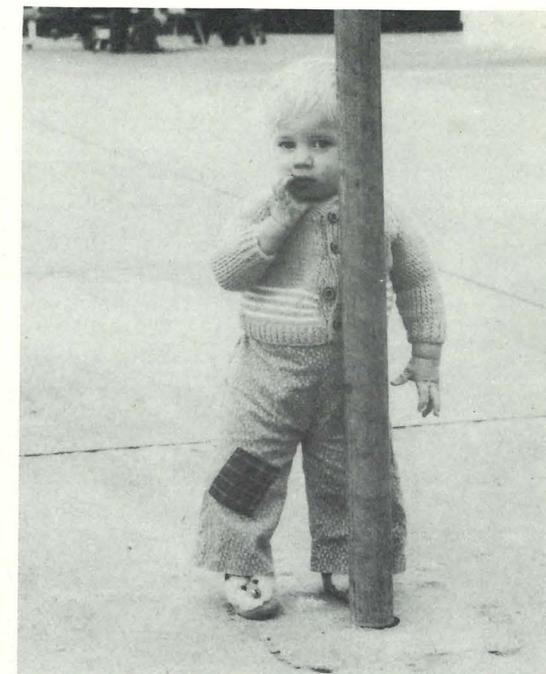

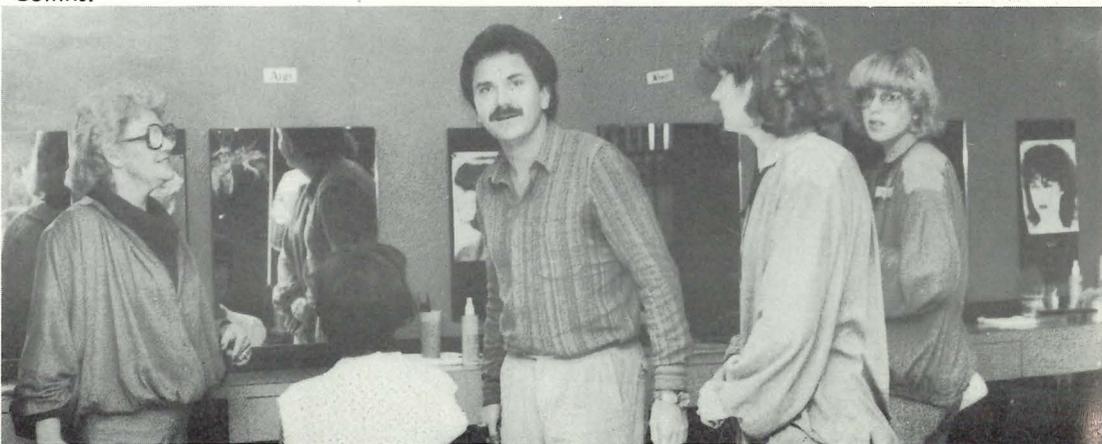

RIGHT: Rowan Johnson took away the Irving Challenge Cup for local Highland Fling under 10 yrs.

This month we'd like to record the wedding of Corinne Jones and Hugh Hamlin who were married at St. Pauls. Corinne is a youngest daughter while Hugh is an eldest son. They are making their home in Brisbane, Australia.

May 31st was the wedding day for Gillian O'Conner and Colin Rawson. They were married at St. Mary's and Gillian wore a white trilobal polyester gown with lace trimming.

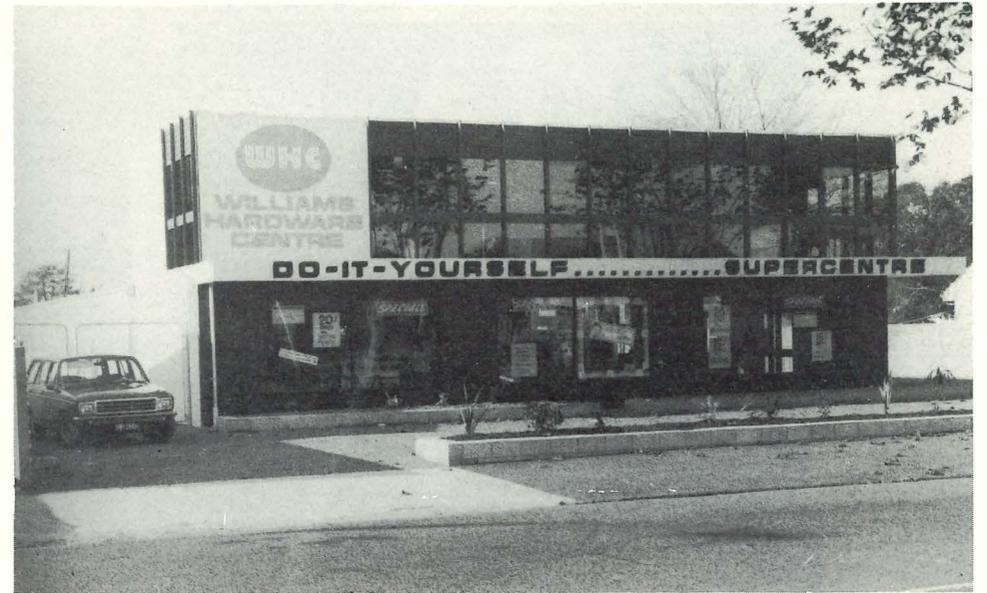

Passing through Wanganui on yet another successful concert tour is former city son Ross Pople. He shared billing with Bruce Greenfield above. Bruce is a lecturer in piano and analysis at the Wellington Polytechnic and has established a solid reputation as a soloist and accompanist while Ross has achieved international acclaim and enjoys the position of solo principal cellist to the BBC symphony orchestra. Their performance in Wanganui received rave reviews. BELOW: Hazel Anderson, a well known local photographer and artist here presents "Reassurance" a photograph taken in Taupo and part of her current exhibition.

Mixed media event of the month was clearly the Red Mole performance at the Opera House. Catering to freaks, hairies and general good lovers of music Red Mole turned in a brilliant performance to their dedicated following. Items of theatre, music, mime and dance filled the programme with highlights from costuming and lighting.

Marching from the Memorial Hall forecourt to the Trinity Methodist Church for their annual church parade are Girls Brigade and Boys Brigade combined. The service coincides with Girls Brigade Week and was conducted by the Rev. W. Wilson.

BELOW: Stepping lively Mark Glentworth, Robert Hiri and Grant Bennett.

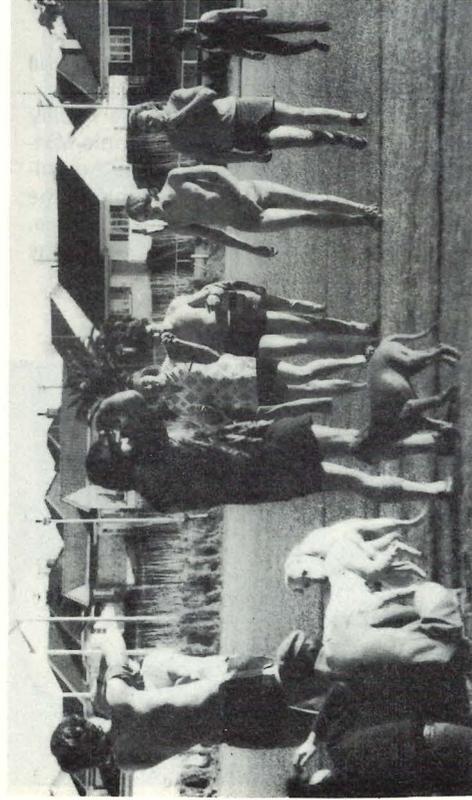

Mariana and Maihi Peina, (brother and sister) recently returned from 2 yrs in London. Mariana joined the London Maori Club in April - June wherein she travelled through Britain and Ireland helping to promote Air New Zealand and British Airways.

Heather and Ron Russell at home following the announcement of Mr Russell's award of the Companion of the Queen's Service Order. Mr. Russell's extensive contribution to Wanganui ranges from Chairman of the Wanganui United Council to presiding over Corso, R.S.A. and Rotary.

From contemporary New Zealand Theatre to Classic European Drama. We caught Prospect Theatre in rehearsal for Ibsen's epic, 'A Dolls House' at Four Seasons. The play predates and articulates the womens movement by many decades and the theme is still relevant.

RIGHT: Intense drama also at the Wanganui Freighters yard where Ray Fowler auto crosses a puddle in his Riley Elf.

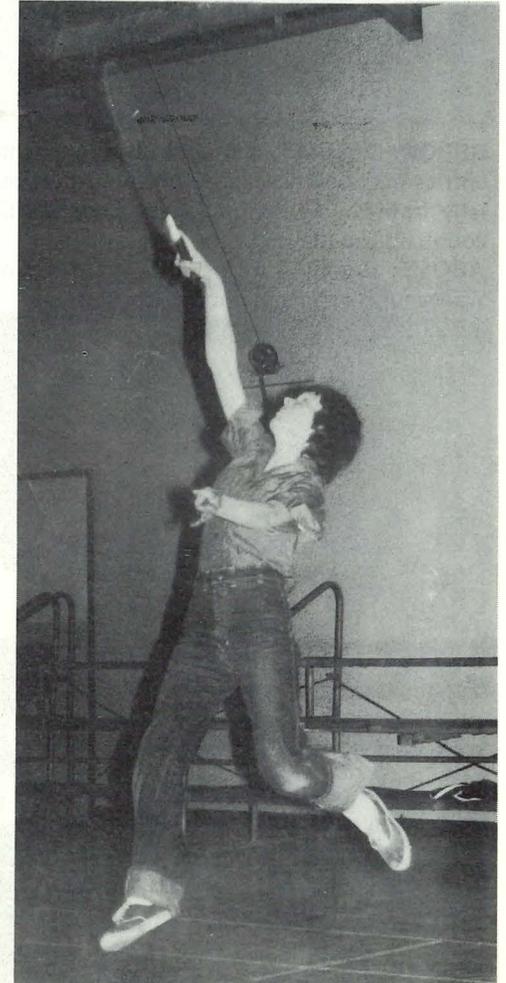

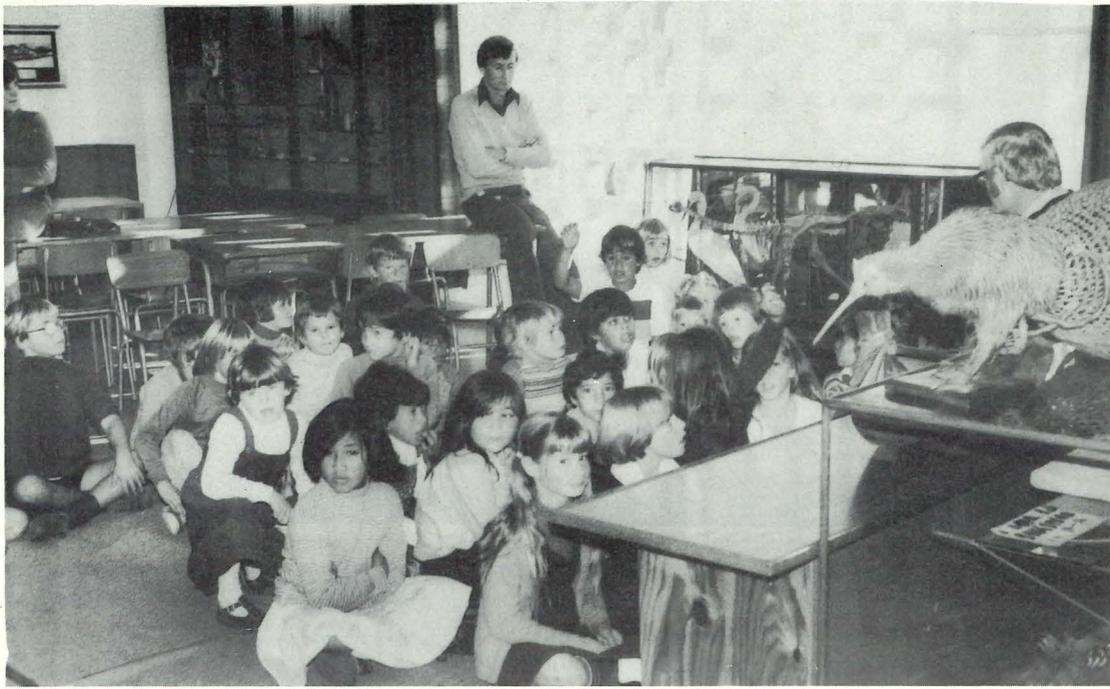

And with June came the frosts. These photos were taken on the record-breaking day which recorded 2.7 degrees celcius, the coldest frost for 5 years. The official figures were challenged by temperature enthusiasts, one of whom recorded a staggering - 11 degrees celcius.

BELOW RIGHT: Forever popular netball. Here a shot of a shot in a game between Fordell A and Ratana E. Ratana dominated.

We caught some club night action at the Wanganui Badminton Club's weekly meeting. Here at the Sports Stadium a group of players take time out. Actually the club is so popular the boys are waiting for a court and proved quite forthcoming with information when photographer Bob asked about the two young ladies featured below. ABOVE: from left, Kim Lockett, Darryn McCoskery, Tim Davies and Mike Pickard. RIGHT : Amanda Craig hits a high one while BELOW Leanne Coles waits for play to come her way.

BELOW: The Catholic Indoor Bowling Champs drew entrants from Auckland to Canterbury with 450 entries in the singles and 90 mats in the doubles. Competition over the three days was strong especially from the St. John Vianney Club of Hillsborough which counts among its members some of the country's top players.

ABOVE: Room 10 from Keith Street school enjoy a class in Maori studies by Mr McDonnell in the Wanganui Regional Museum classroom.

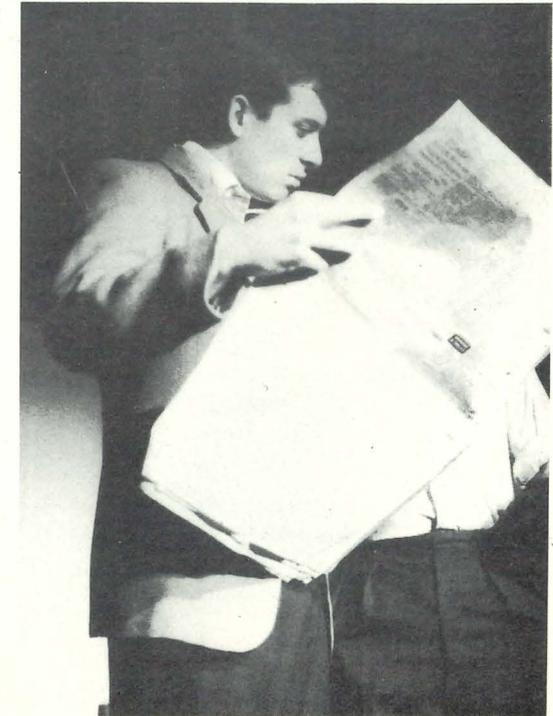

Roger Hall has captured the hearts and minds of middle N.Z. and we thank Prospect Theatre for bringing another of Hall's plays to Wanganui. 'Prisoners of Mother England' explores the culture shock of New Zealand society on 'pommie immigrants'.

ABOVE: Millie Kerfoot and Lex Mathieson finding N.Z. but an awkward shadow of home.

ABOVE Unsung heroes at the bowls. The staff of Wanganui Caterers busy behind the scenes washing 600 cups and saucers - 3 times!

ABOVE: The Gonville Cottage Industry market caters for many and varied crafts. You'll find clothing near the womble poster.

LEFT: No it's not an L.P.G. explosion. The gas station at Dublin St. is going through a face lift.

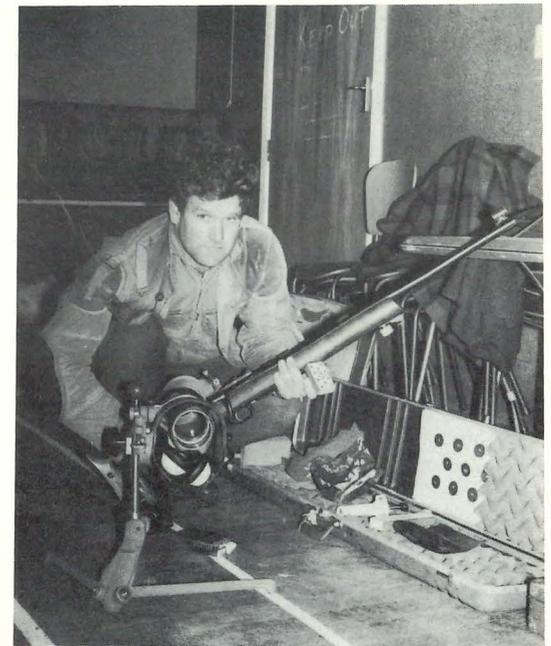

BELOW: The China syndrome. John Plumridge from the Gas Department checks out the system.

The Annual Taranaki versus Wanganui smallbore shoot was a happy occasion for the participating marksmen.

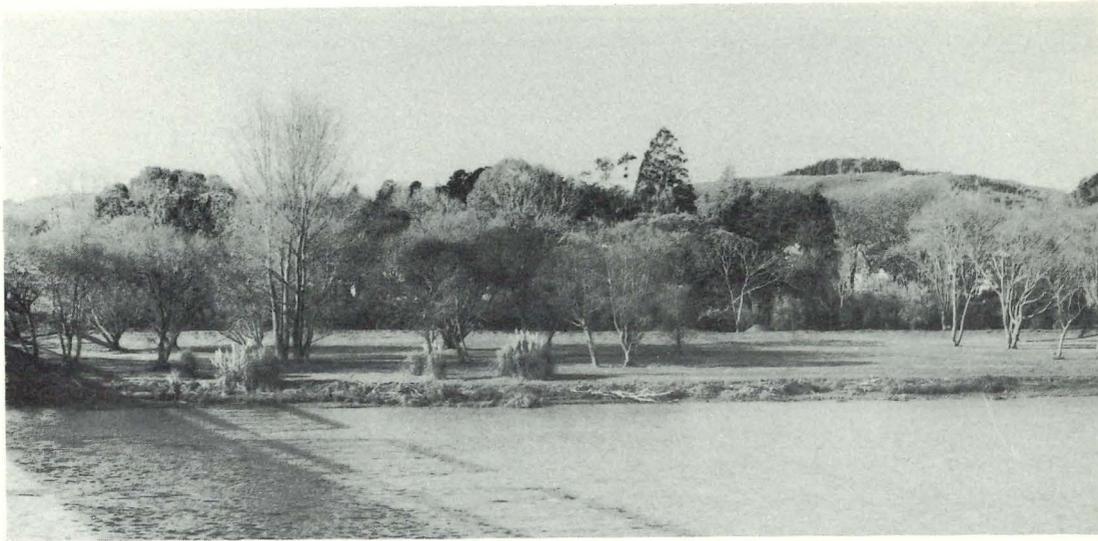

ABOVE: At the Okoia range for the competition were Lois Aanensen, Jill Walker (Association Secretary), Lawrence Moodie and Olive O'Keefe.

Sometimes we only print part of a photo. Sometimes we only print one or two photos when we've taken dozens. The original photos are top quality so if you want photos of any of the events we've covered, come in to the Camera Centre in Guyton St. and look through the proof sheets.

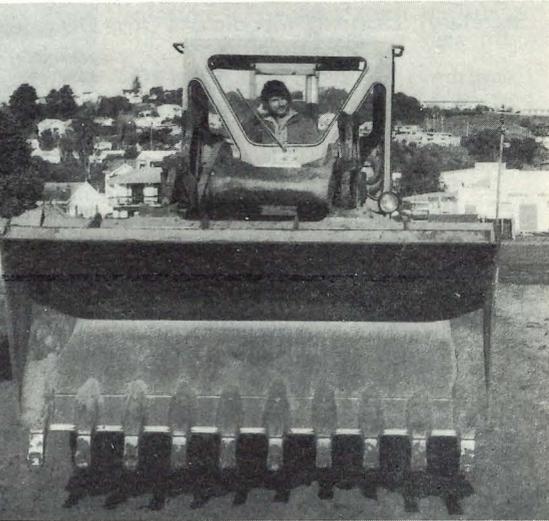

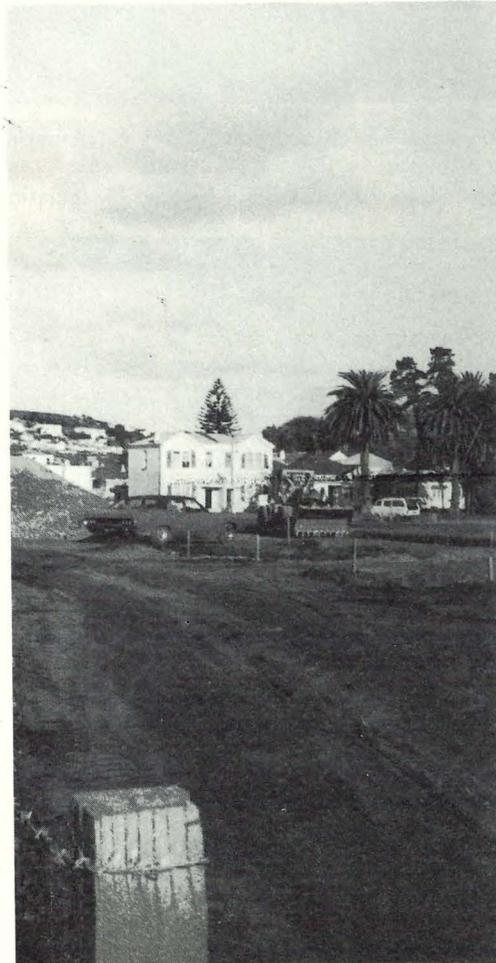

ABOVE: John Scobie prepares himself with scope and rifle.

ABOVE: A new area of scenic parkland nearing development completion is the riverbank at Kowhai Park. The ground has been levelled, fallen trees and scrub removed to yield a few acres of flat land liberally interspersed with trees.

LEFT: Work is now well underway on the City Council Pukenamu Urban renewal site on the opposite side of the river.

Awards for the 1979 2ZW Xmas parade were presented this month by announcer Paul Rowe.

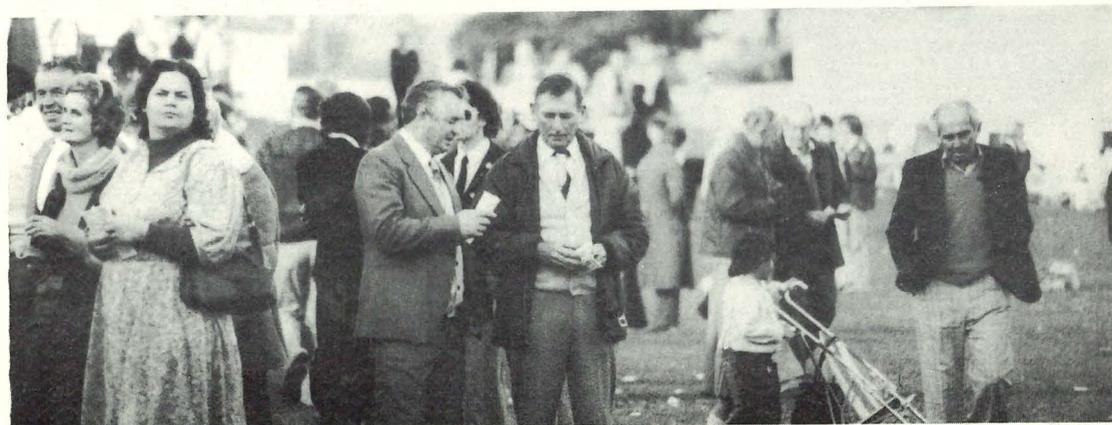

ABOVE RIGHT: Marie Hoskin receives the cup for 2nd non-commercial float on behalf of the 'K' Club.

BELOW: Mr Taylor holds the cup for Paint & Wallpapers, second place commercial front.

Occasionally during some games, Wanganui stops practising rugby and starts playing it. In the Queen's Birthday Taranaki clash Graham Coleman made an enterprising break, fed to Larry Coleman, and on to Bruce Middleton who scored in the corner.

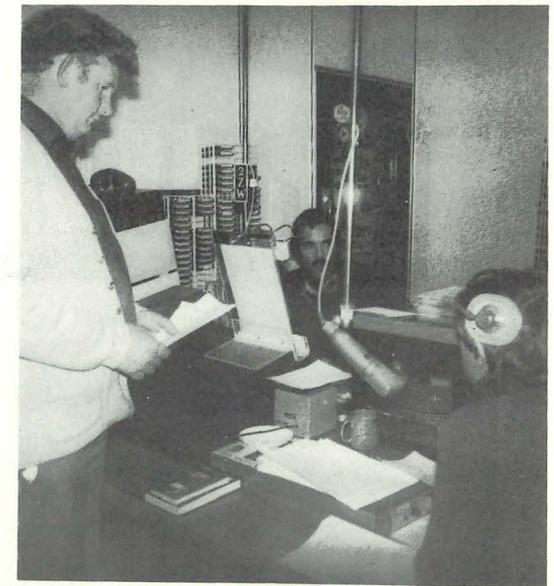

BELOW: And everyone a winner! Punters later that day at the races.

Amdram excelled itself with a magnificent production of 'Joseph and his amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat'. The story follows the biblical life of Joseph but is presented in anything but a biblical style. The music and singing was well received by the audience but most impressive was the combined visual effects of lighting, set, movement and costume. ABOVE: Caught preparing backstage are Chris Featonby (Narrator) and Fred Phillips (Jacob).

Photographer Bob covered the chook show but came back with photos of everything but the chooks! For this he gets a Pulletser Prize for photo journalism.

ABOVE: With its fixation on big aeroplanes and safe routes, Air New Zealand has had to step aside to allow alternative airlines to service some of the needs of centres like Wanganui. June saw the arrival of Eagle Air's new and largest plane. It is an 18 seater Embraer Bandeirante and is made in Brazil. Crew from left: Paul Wright (Chief Pilot) David Moss, David Harris.

LEFT : Local government giveth - and central government taketh away. Photographer Bob was pleased to catch this photo of traffic officers detaining two city council trucks. With all Bob's parking tickets, from covering assignments, he was beginning to think he was financing the traffic department himself.
