

No. 141 21 November 1970 WANGANUI

30c

PHOTO NEWS

MARRIED

Above: CALKIN—MASSEY. At St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Diane, only daughter of Mr and Mrs A. J. Massey, 41 Mamaku Street, Wanganui, to Peter, fourth son of Mr and Mrs Cyril Calkin, 15 Toia Street, Marton. The attendants are Miriam O'Connor, chief bridesmaid, Carolyn Clark, Elizabeth Calkin, sister of the groom, Stephanie Cox, Tracey Clark and Jaqueline Smith, flower-girls, James Wilson, best man, John Massey, brother of the bride, Dave Down and Dave Johnson. Future home, Wanganui. (Robuck Studios).

Below: POINTON—GUDSELL. At St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Pamela June, only daughter of Mr and Mrs O. S. Gudsell, Turakina Valley, to Loris Kevyn, second son of Mr and Mrs L. K. Pointon, Eastown Road, Wanganui. The attendants are Jenny O'Sullivan, chief bridesmaid, Wellington, Pauline White, Kaitoke, Peter Alderton, best man and Erin Pointon, brother of the groom, Hawkes Bay. Future home, Wanganui. (Robuck Studios).

Wanganui Photo News

Printed and published every fourth Saturday by
LOGAN PUBLISHING COMPANY LTD.

Editor: ROB GRAHAM.

Robuck Studio, 72 Ridgway Street (opposite P.O.)
P.O. Box 568. Telephone 8055. (After hours 34-249).

Registered as a newspaper at the G.P.O., Wellington.
PREPAID SUBSCRIPTION BY POST: $3.80 PER ANNUM.

OUR COVER

An eye-catching splash of colour taken at the Cameron iris gardens in Putiki.

BACK COVER. Summer is here again and so are the hopefuls who chase the whitebait in the stream at Mowhanau Beach.

NEXT ISSUE: 19 DECEMBER

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Left—DWARFED: Mrs D'Arcy, 5 Bennett Street, has a wonderful garden, as most passers-by will notice. She is dwarfed in this pic by two blooms from her "elephant trunk" shrub.

Below—AWARD: A Clairol top award, the Gold Crown Diploma, was presented at the Selwyn Salon recently to city hairdresser Judy Groves. Making the presentation was Alan McLeod of Clairol (Palmerston North).

CHARITY WALKERS

The Gonville Y.M.C.A. had funds boosted quite considerably as the result of their recent Walkabout, now an annual event. Several personalities took part in the marathon sponsored hike. Pictured ABOVE striding it out with Tom Leigh are Debbie Ormsby, Deborah Roebuck, Judith Hudson and Mary Phillips. ABOVE RIGHT—"I'm walking backwards for Christmas . . ." sang the Goons. Well in this case it was Y.M.C.A.'s Jim Brisco. BELOW—Providing refreshments in Mosstown Road were Janet Montgomerie, Valena Hood, Goldie Oldman, Nancy Wills-Johnson and Elizabeth Hamling.

Mayor Andrews had for company R.S.A. president Maurie Byers and vice-president Tom Matthews

Nine-year-old Pierre Teki walked by himself

Bob Scott wore his rugby togs . . . must have thought he was passing Spriggens Park

Checking his mileage in is ten-year-old Garry Ander

Having a great time: Danny Ryan

Mr and Mrs Alan Webby: Alan is one of the "Mr Big types" in the GHB world.

GROCCERS MAKE MERRY

The Palm Lounge was the venue for a merry scene recently when Wanganui grocers and friends gathered for the annual GHB cabaret. Some of the guests are pictured here by our roving Robuck cameraman.

Tom Menehira's partner had a "unisex" look about him (or her)

Nothing wrong with Noel Mahoney: he just happened to be standing there when we took this picture.

Well, that's one way to keep your peepers open. The old matchstick trick.

Some stirring music soon had the patrons swinging

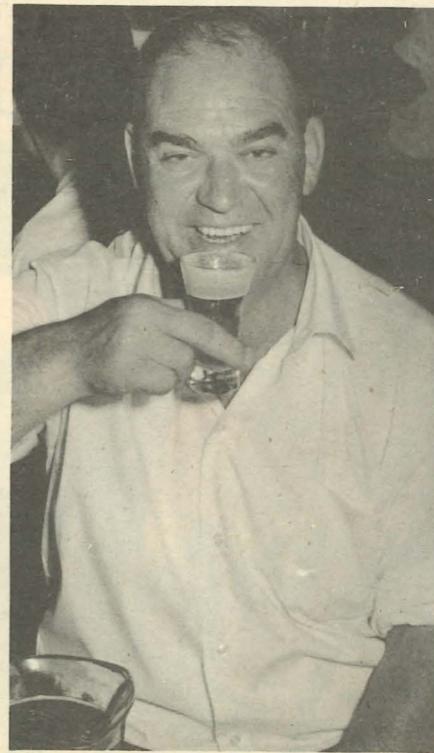

Eddie Churcher helped the grocers celebrate their Christmas

Cherie Morrison, wife of grocery rep. John M.

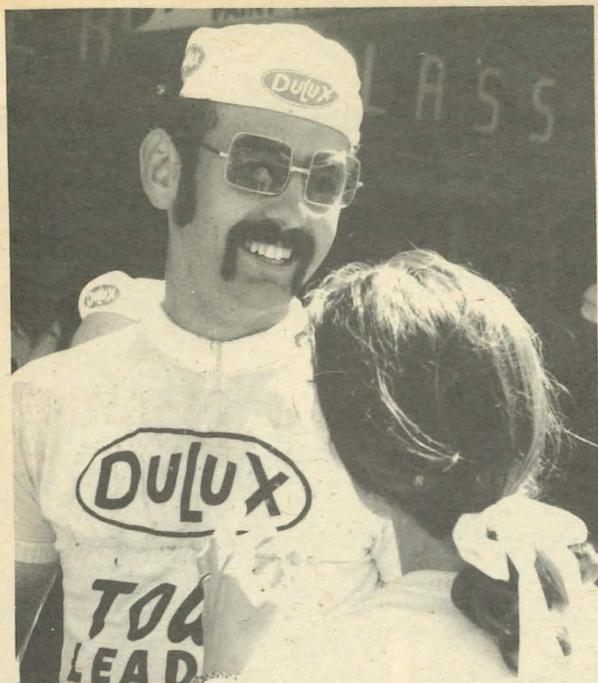

Grocer's assistant Gael McPhun was there too

Merry Xmas friend

NMA's Don Culling was along for the fun

Tour winner Brent Pascoe (Waikato) receives encouragement from a supporter

The 1970 Dulux six-day cycle race was quite a good one for Wanganui's three entries. Bryan Simmonds, Larry Robb and Ray Harris all had their moments of glory in sprints and hill climbs and collected trophies at various parts of the tour. Most successful was local champion Ray Harris who finished seventh overall (in a field of over 40 riders). Larry Robb was sixth in the King of the Mountains section.

From Auckland to Wellington, this was the scene

SIX DAY RACE

Japanese riders Tsukada and Enomoto with King of the Mountains winner John Hine (Australia)

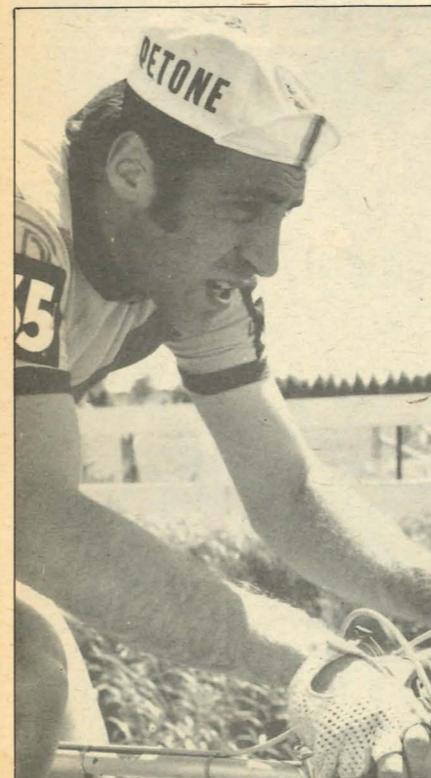

Larry Robb, sixth in King of the Mountains

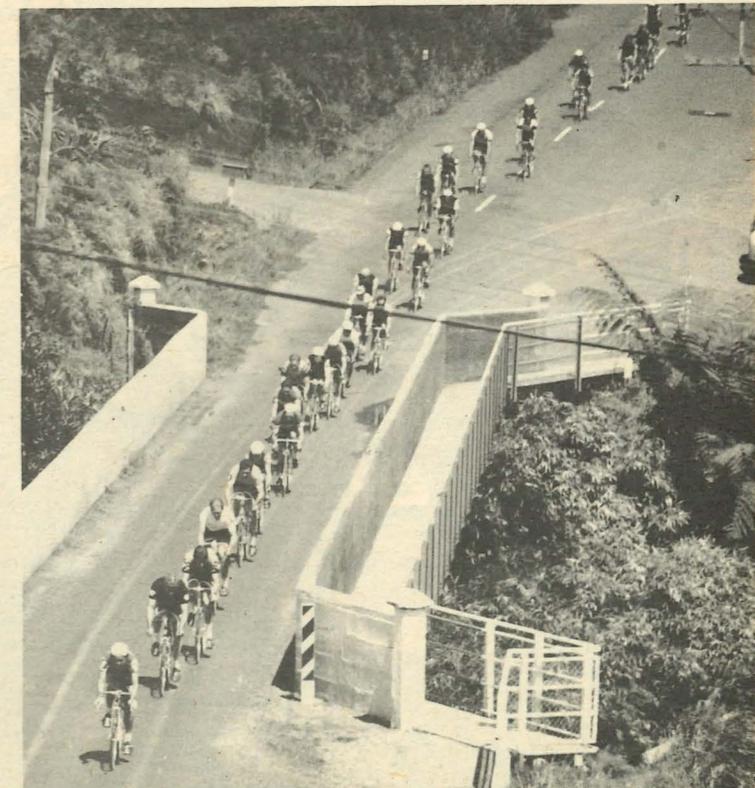

Ray Harris, seventh overall placing

Bryan Simmonds gained a ton of experience towards a promising future.

New Zealand road champ Neil Lyster wasn't in the first ten

On the trail from New Plymouth to Wanganui the cyclists ride in Indian file at this point

HALLWE'EN

Witches, cats, pumpkins, merrymakers, Commercial Travellers and Ernie Rouse and his Tradsters. Where? At the Memorial Hall on the 31st October . . . that's when the local Ceetees staged their massive hallowe'en cabaret for a crowd of near 800 people. Proceeds totalling $700 were presented to the I.H.C. building fund.

ABOVE—Ceetee Mike Wotton and his wife Cheryl. RIGHT—Master of Ceremonies Graham Tyler has a gift for Paul Brown.

CABARET

Ernie Rouse and his Trad Band came over from Hawkes Bay to play for the function. Here we see them earlier in the day performing at Foster's Hotel.

Mr and Mrs George Spooner came along to enjoy themselves

Mr and Mrs Jim McGregor were there too

Ivan and Eileen Harrison came from Stratford for the whingding

Ormy and 'Laney Andrews arrive at the Memorial Hall

A large party of guests pictured on arrival

Bunnygirl Shirley Mulholland takes time out for a dance with a Doctor called Bevan

Jeanette and John Bell from the Ceetee ranks

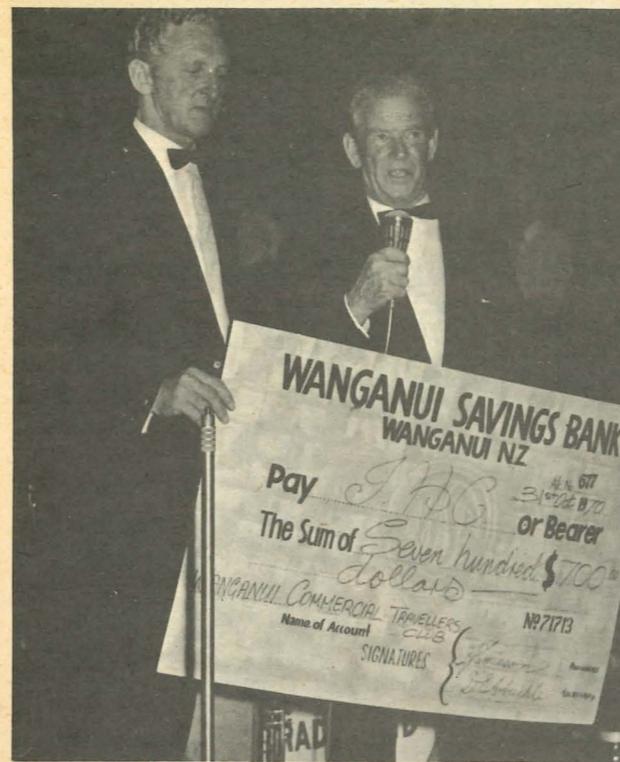

Another Ceetee member, Dave Morton and his wife, Elaine

Bert and Alison Henderson in attendance

Masked patrons Dave Arbuckle and Co.

Climax of all of the work and enjoyment. Ceetee president Alan Jamieson presents a giant cheque for $700 to I.H.C. chairman Jack Brotherston.

The witch appeared (astride her Raleigh Twenty broomstick) at midnight

Bandleader Ernie Rouse teaches the trumpet to Bunnies Ngaire Kendall, Shirley Mulholland and Judith Turnbull

IRIS CONVENTION

The 21st anniversary of the formation of the New Zealand Iris Society was held in Wanganui recently and attracted over 100 enthusiasts from all over the country.

An anonymous St. John's Hill resident was responsible for this fabulous cake complete with iris decorations.

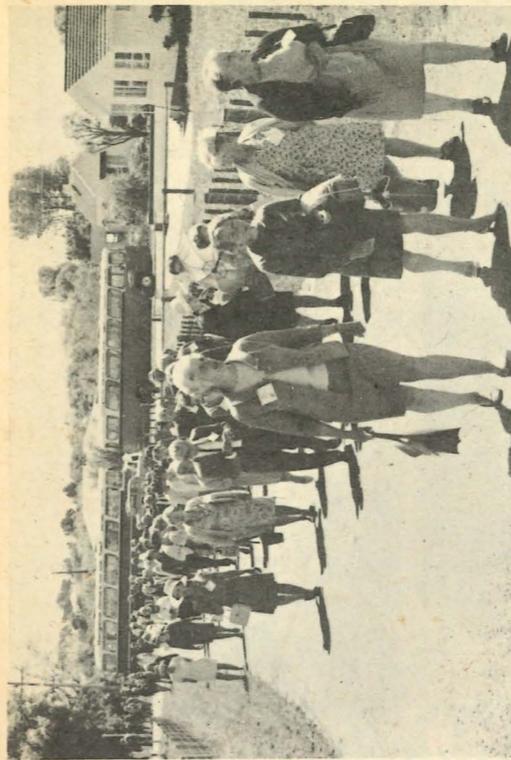

The honour of cutting the 21st cake went to Mr W. Stevens, Wanganui, and Mr White, a past president of the Society, Christchurch.

Society members inspect with avid fascination the Cameron gardens at Putiki

Pictured among the members at the 21st dinner in the Regency Lounge: Mr and Mrs F. W. Burnet, Wanganui.

Three busloads of members arrive at the Cameron iris gardens at Putiki

Members of the New Zealand Iris Society pictured in the sun on the Veterans' Steps

FASHIONS AT RATANA

Residents of Ratana Pa staged their own fashion parade recently at the Pa and they modelled very successfully a wide range of garments supplied by the D.I.C. in Wanganui.

ABOVE LEFT—Stepping out in a brunch coat is Katrina Hika. ABOVE CENTRE—Janine Hika in night attire. ABOVE RIGHT—Real cool baby: Marama Mako in up-to-date fashions for the younger set. BELOW—They just loved seeing the folk they know all dressed up like real mannequins.

All dressed for the formal occasion: Ngaire Mako

Lenora Tanerau was a little coy

Joyce Ratana is getting used to parading in these shows

With all the poise and aplomb of the expert Anne Waitai parades her garments

Dorothy Churchward steps out

Richard Mako was one of two men to model the clothes. The other was Michael Taiaroa.

A PUP FOR RICHARD

A watch, long playing records and then a talking map of the world were presented to Richard Turfrey. Then his eyes really lit up when Eta Foods marketing manager Mr D. F. W. Bagley took a wee Spaniel pup from his car and handed it to Richard. These were his prizes after coming third in the 7-9 age group (out of 27,000 entries) in the national colouring competition staged by Eta Foods Ltd.

ABOVE—Grocer Ted Harrison, Richard and others look on as Richard's entry is displayed.

BELOW—Popular lad with his class mates, Richard proudly shows his new puppy to his school friends who came to watch the presentation ceremony at Harrison's Foodmarket, Abbot Street.

PLAYCENTRE FASHION

Lingerie was modelled before quite a large gathering in the home of Mrs Joyce Ratana, Toi Street, last month. The proceeds from the evening went to the Ratana Playcentre.

ABOVE—Dawn Drake models a garment which can have its skirt unbuttoned to leave a bikini outfit.

RIGHT—Lacey sleeping cullottes are shown by Beverley Harrison and Dawn Drake.

Bev doffs an outer garment to show her nightdress

Modelling a mini nightie was Betty Puklowski

Hostess Joyce Ratana also acted as a mannequin

STATION 2ZW'S BIRTHDAY

Cocktails, a banquet and dancing into the wee small hours at the Racecourse Lounge marked the official observance of broadcasting's 21 years in Wanganui. One of the nicer aspects of the evening was the appearance from great distances of former staffers from the earlier days of Radio 2ZW, then called 2XA. Pictured BELOW are some of those who were on the staff in the formative year. Back row: Sir Roy Jack, Dave Strachan, Owen Gray, Una Hawken (Mary McDonald over the air), Ian Vernazoni, Bert Svenson. Front: Betty Garmonsway (nee Symes), Ainsley Russell (nee Coull), Manager Eric Lawrence, Jill Walker (nee Sutherland), and Muriel Svenson (nee Kearns). ABOVE—Official guests watch part of the proceedings from the upper floor.

Members of the official party pictured at the banquet

Director-General of Broadcasting, Mr Lionel Skeats, presents the 21st key to Mr Lawrence

Foundation staff member Owen Gray cuts the cake

Comments by Lex Sievwright when he handed over "birthday presents" had the guests in fits of laughter

Enjoying the dancing were Mr and Mrs Ron Spooner

A toast by Mr and Mrs Barsanti

Pat Underwood of the advertising section with her husband, Tom

On the dance floor: Shirley and Les Clark

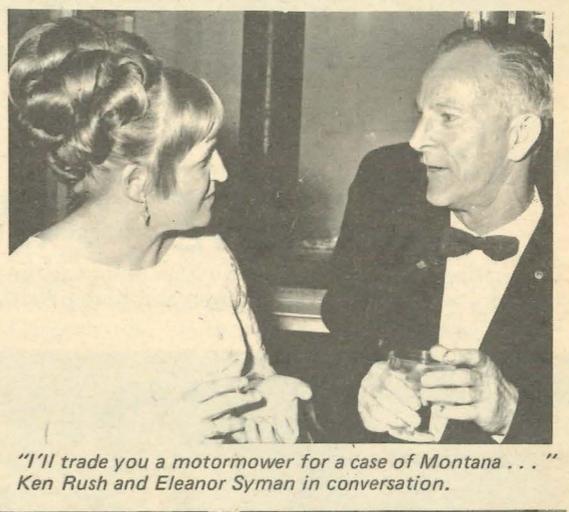

A couple of lads upstairs . . . John Schofield and Dave Strachan

All smiles . . . Noel and Marion Ruscoe

Eric and Margaret Lawrence receive their birthday gifts

"I'll trade you a motormower for a case of Montana . . ." Ken Rush and Eleanor Syman in conversation.

Also present at the function were the Peter Frazers and the Frank Churchwards

Mr and Mrs Doug Wilson were there too

"... and if elected I will see that all of the cabinet will ride Suzuki bikes . . ."

HERE AND THERE

Celebrating their prelim. exams with a dinner at the Rutland were these nurses: Barbara Wheeldon, Janet Harold, Sue Bastion, Jenny Bougen and Karen Walker. Absent when we took the picture were Robyn Gatchell and Pam Foreman.

Members of Wanganui's S.P.C.A. Society are pictured with Mrs A. McPhail (front, third from left), who was the recipient of a citation and Medal of Merit for 25 years' service to the S.P.C.A. Mrs McPhail has been with the Wanganui Society for 40 years and has been on the Royal Federation Council of New Zealand for 25 years.

WEDDINGS

Above: McCULLOUGH—SANDLANT. At St. Anne's Catholic Church, Barbara May, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs C. W. Sandlant, 22 Hinemoa Street, to Basil Samuel, youngest son of Mrs V. F. Grinstead and the late Mr Joseph McCullough, 119 Karaka Street, Wanganui. The attendants are Patricia Roydhouse, matron of honour, Karen Sandlant, sister of the bride, Patricia Sandlant, sister of the bride, flower-girl, John Irving, best man, and Chris Sandlant, brother of the bride. Future home, Wanganui. (Robuck Studios).

Below: BROWN—DUSTIN. At Trinity Methodist Church, Valerie Ethel, third daughter of Mr and Mrs C. Dustin, 49 Campbell Street, to Rhys Rhodes, eldest son of Mr and the late Mrs J. R. Brown, 80 Corson Avenue, Beckenhäm, Christchurch. The attendants are Carol Warren, sister of the bride, Wanganui, matron of honour, Kathryn Anderson, Christchurch, Kathryn Turner, junior maid, Ray Herman, Christchurch, best man, and Perry Brown, brother of the groom, Christchurch. Future home, Christchurch. (Robuck Studios).

Carrying in some tomato plants: Bruce Douglas and Robin Williams

Mrs G. Weekes with her daughters Lisa and Tanya

Loaded with goodies . . . Mrs V. Skilton

Wee shoppers . . . Katrina and Todd Zander and Angus Murray

MARKET DAY

Crowds thronged the Memorial Hall last month for the annual Jaycee-organised Market Day. The hall was packed with stalls erected by various organisations and all sorts of bargains were on sale for patrons. ABOVE LEFT—Helping Mrs Palmer with her pram are David Ward and Eric Askin. ABOVE RIGHT—This wee tot had a great time . . . judging by the pile of toffee papers. BELOW—A gala atmosphere in the hall.

A twin reaction to our photographer by Mark and John Teohaere

ROVING CAMERA

It was an "inside job" for members of the Victoria Tennis Club when they staged their opening of the 1970/71 season. Very wet conditions didn't deter the ceremony taking place . . . everybody moved into the pavilion.

LEFT—Young players, Ted Hulbert, Nigel Braddock, Steven Willoughby and Russell Newsome.

Patron Garry Craig with club president Bill Campbell

The 56th reunion of the Main Body of the Wellington-West Coast company who attended the 1918 war was held again at the home of Mrs E. Bevege recently. These chaps came from Auckland, Feilding, Palmerston North, Levin and Wanganui for the meeting. From left: Jim Archer, George France, Harold Reading, Sam Lowry, Oliver Whittaker, Joe Griffiths, Rod McGregor, Cecil Lovegrove and Gus Aldridge.

THE FASHION SCENE

Crimplene was featured in parades held at John Court's in Wanganui recently. Large crowds watched the sessions and appeared to be impressed by the garments and their prices. Models pictured ABOVE are Anne Hartshorne, Freda Dowdall and Theresa Hodgson.

BELOW—Shoppers packed in for all of the parades.

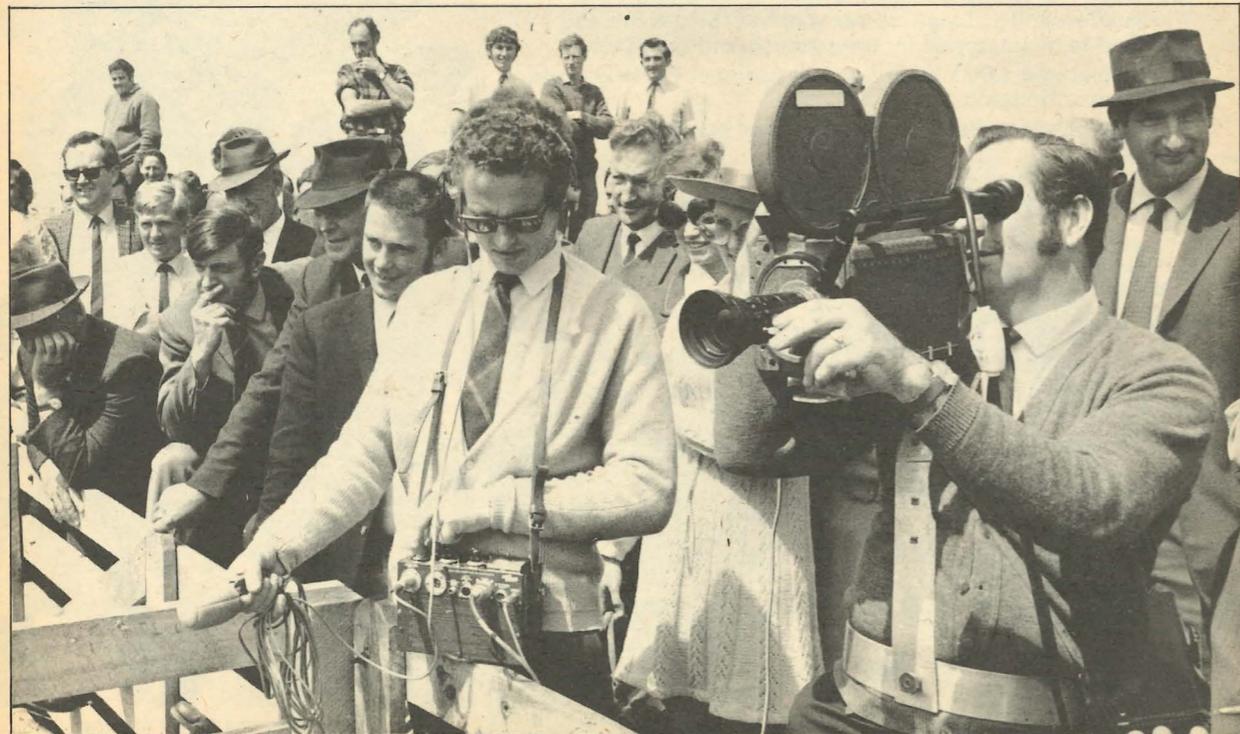

The four mannequins appear together

STOCK FOR I.H.C.

The Wanganui Lions Club, broadcasting personalities and generous farmers combined their efforts at the Fordell stockyards a few weeks back to raise money for Wanganui's Intellectually Handicapped Children. Farmers donated sheep, etc., and announcers auctioned them off for as much as they could in aid of the charity.
 ABOVE—Announcer Gay Sweeney interviews stockmen Brian Waldegrave and Charlie Gilbertson.
 BELOW—A pretty big crowd gathered, and a TV cameraman from Palmerston North was there also.

Bewhiskered Erin Sinclair knocks down a pen of sheep

Relda exhorts the crowd to bid well for her offerings

There was also some serious selling . . . but this was left to the expert auctioneers

INDOOR GOLF

Resident "professionals" Putting Pete McCarthy and Racey Stacey used their knowledge of the home course to good effect when they defeated visiting golfers Slamming Relda Familton and Saxie Jim Paxie on the luxurious Grand International indoor links recently. As can be seen by the ABOVE picture the golfers played to a full gallery . . . or half-full . . . oops, should we say CROWDED gallery.
BELOW—Course announcers Erin Sinclair and Doud Armstrong start up the commentary as Racey Stacey prepares to tee off.

ABOVE LEFT—A giggle from Relda as she makes a slight error of judgment.

ABOVE—Sizing up the fairway from the doorway of the Executive Suite are competitors Pete, Relda, Jim and Stacey.

LEFT—Caddy Neil Jenkins checks the clubs.

BELOW—A spectator goes all coy as Saxie Jim congratulates his partner, Relda, on her stroke.

Village Green

What a pity that more use is not made of the very picturesque Peat Park. Schoolboy soccer players use it during the dismal winter months when the English trees have lost their beautiful foliage. During summer months? NOTHING. Well, nothing organised. Just the occasional people taking their kiddies for a romp. With all its shade and its sheltered location we would like to see it put into regular use by some sporting body. Any supporters for our idea?

LEFT—Coming of age: Pictured with her parents at her 21st birthday party recently is Kathleen Johnson, 9 Tipai Street, Wanganui East. (Souter).

ABOVE—Married: BELL—EGAN. At Knox Presbyterian Church, Judith Ann Egan, daughter of Mrs D. Fisher, Bourke, Australia, to Kenneth David, son of Mr and Mrs L. E. Bell, 14 Prince Street, Wanganui. Future home will be in Wanganui. (Ronald B. Coleman).

BELOW—Joint Christening: Pictured with their parents after a christening ceremony recently are cousins Julie Huxley (with John and Shirley Huxley at left) and Clinton Harvey (with Lois and Barry Harvey). (Robuck Studios).

SOCIALITEMS

Here and There

ABOVE—Paying an official visit to Wanganui's Sea Ranger Ship Royalist recently was Mrs W. Owen-John, Wellington, national advisor for Rangers in this country. Skipper Andrews and members of the Royalist's crew are pictured with their visitor.

BELOW—Making things a bit different in his shop for all you book-buyers last month was Chas. Poynter. Charles completely ripped out his shop interior, had a new concrete floor laid . . . and was open again for business all in the space of a weekend.

IN-STORE PROMOTIONS

Wanganui's Radio 2ZW types . . . with the help of Wellington's Relda Familton . . . had a terrifically busy time during their 21st birthday week. In-store promotions came thick and fast and the radio teams used some pretty rapid forms of transport between stores at times so as to keep up with their schedules.

ABOVE—Relda and Roy interview customers at John Court's.

BELOW—Give-aways were a feature in most of the department stores and groceries. In the newly-opened Aramoho Buywell a customer had only a given time to load up as many free goods as she could grab in a dash through the shop. Roy Eagleton ran this particular part of the promotion.

Quite a crew invaded Woolworths Supermarket. Roy and Relda operated a request session and still managed to give away samples of food flavourings in between times.

Things were a little more restful at the Grand International. Relda, Syd Krs and Erin Sinclair dined with Tim and Norma Hurley and discussed between mouthfuls the merits of the meal and wines.

SCHOOL HANGI

The children of Queen's Park School went "Maori" recently when they farewelled two of their teachers, Mrs G. Roache (leaving for Canada) and Miss Edith Bourne (getting wed). A feature of the day was the hangi dinner. ABOVE—Opening the "oven door". RIGHT—Mr H. Hipango lifts the boiling water. BELOW—Mr Hipango demonstrates how the challenge should be done.

The kai's ready, kids

Standard IV boys do a haka

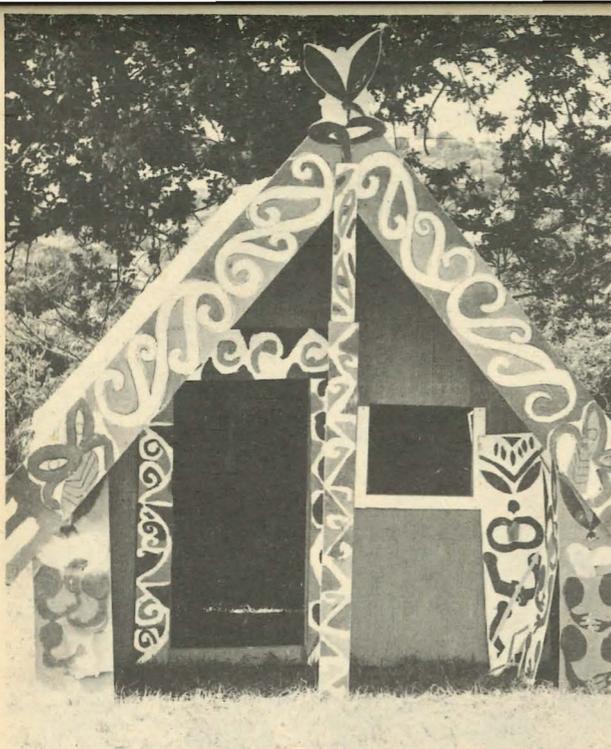

Coral Innes and Beverley White present flowers to Mrs Roache

Enjoying a stick game are girls from Std. IV

Children wait patiently to be fed. In the background is Miss Bourne.

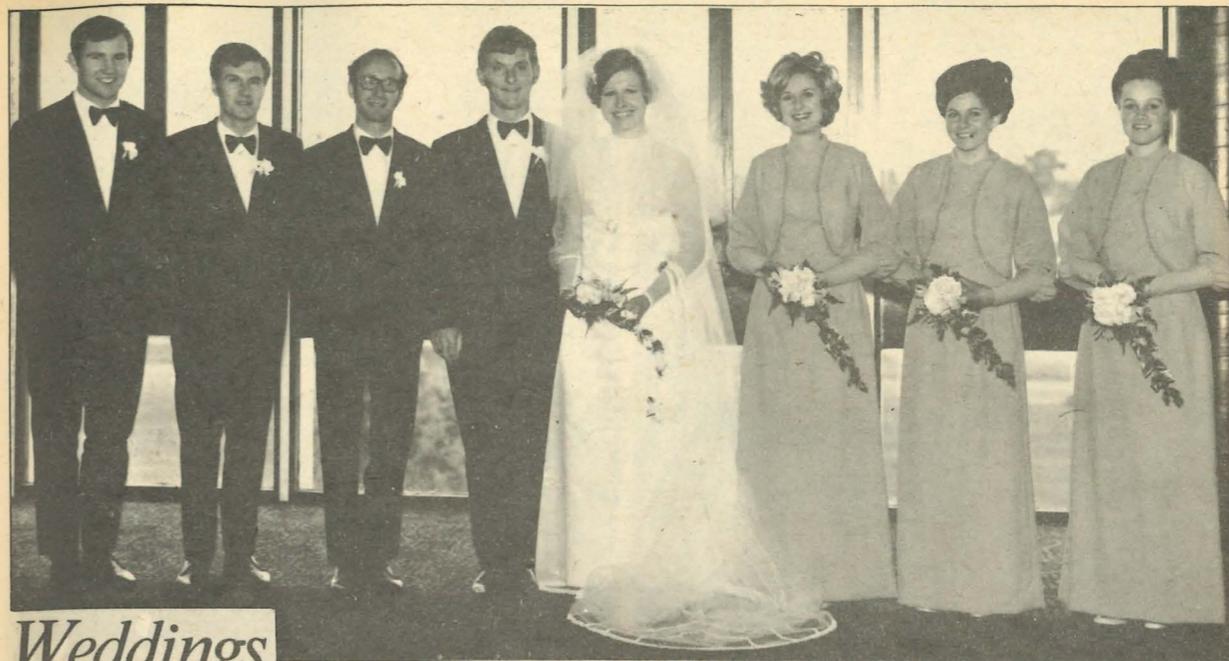

A great work of art by some of the children was this model whare

Hoani Hipango issues the challenge to the guests of honour

Mrs Roache joins in an action song with some of the pupils

Weddings

Above: WOOD—ABEL. At St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Morven Heather, daughter of Mr and Mrs D. Abel, "Ordie", Kaitoke, to Donald Bruce, son of Mr and Mrs I. K. Wood, "Cove-Wood", Kirita, Thames. The attendants, from left, are Murray Abel, R.N.Z.A.F., Ohakea, brother of the bride, Geoff Paton, Auckland, Dave Dewar, best man, Christchurch, Jennifer Espiner, chief bridesmaid, Auckland, Sally Abel, Waimana, and Cheryl Crutchley, Wanganui. Future home, "Brookwood", Lichfield. (Robuck Studios).

Below: COSFORD—WARD. Pictured with their attendants after their recent marriage at St. James's Presbyterian Church, Wanganui East, are Raewyn Alison, daughter of Mr and Mrs E. A. Ward, 13 Matarawa Street, and Donald Cosford, Wanganui. Future home, Wanganui. (Souter).

Mrs Z. Neilson won the Mel Hooker Cup

Senior pairs winners Mrs R. Murphy and Mr L. Dawson

Runner-up in the senior singles, Mrs J. Sharpe

Mrs J. Sullivan won the junior singles

Mrs D. Stampa was runner-up in the handicap singles

Cosmo Bowls Closing

On these pages we picture some of the trophy winners at the closing night of the Cosmopolitan Indoor Bowling Club.

Senior pairs runners-up were Mesdames J. Taylor and I. Neal

Winners of the junior pairs were Mrs J. Hogg and Miss Z. Stampa

Winner of the colts' singles, Mrs D. Hockley

Runner-up for the colts' singles title was Mr C. Spriggins

Frank Just won the handicap singles

Sylvia McLiskey steps out among the guests

HATS PARADED

Hats made by Dorothy Papworth were featured in a parade at Shangri La recently. Proceeds were in aid of the Boys' College forthcoming trip to Fiji.

ABOVE—Marjorie Craig in a smart outfit topped by a Papworth hat.

Also featuring the millinery was Diane Doble

BOATS CHRISTENED

Two new boats were christened at the Aramoho Rowing Club last month. They were named after two club stalwarts, Des Simonson and Jack Stokes. The scene is set (ABOVE) ready to have the bubbly smashed (and strained through an ABC sock) over the boats.

LEFT—Les Clark makes a small speech.

Shirley Simonson cracks the bubbly over the boat named after her husband

Jack Stokes and his daughter, Mrs. I. Brown

A good gathering of club members watched events

BADMINTON CLOSING

The Gonville Badminton Club closed their season recently with the presentation of trophies in the Sports Stadium. Some of the members are pictured above.

John Vine has a few words

Winners of the handicap doubles were Keith Wills and David Pennifather

Mrs L. Lewis and Barry Sawyer won the combined handicap doubles

The ladies' prize for the yankee tournament went to Mrs L. Leaver

Ladies' singles winner was B. Parr

Ladies' first-year singles champ was Fay Ankins

M. Webster won the ladies' handicap singles

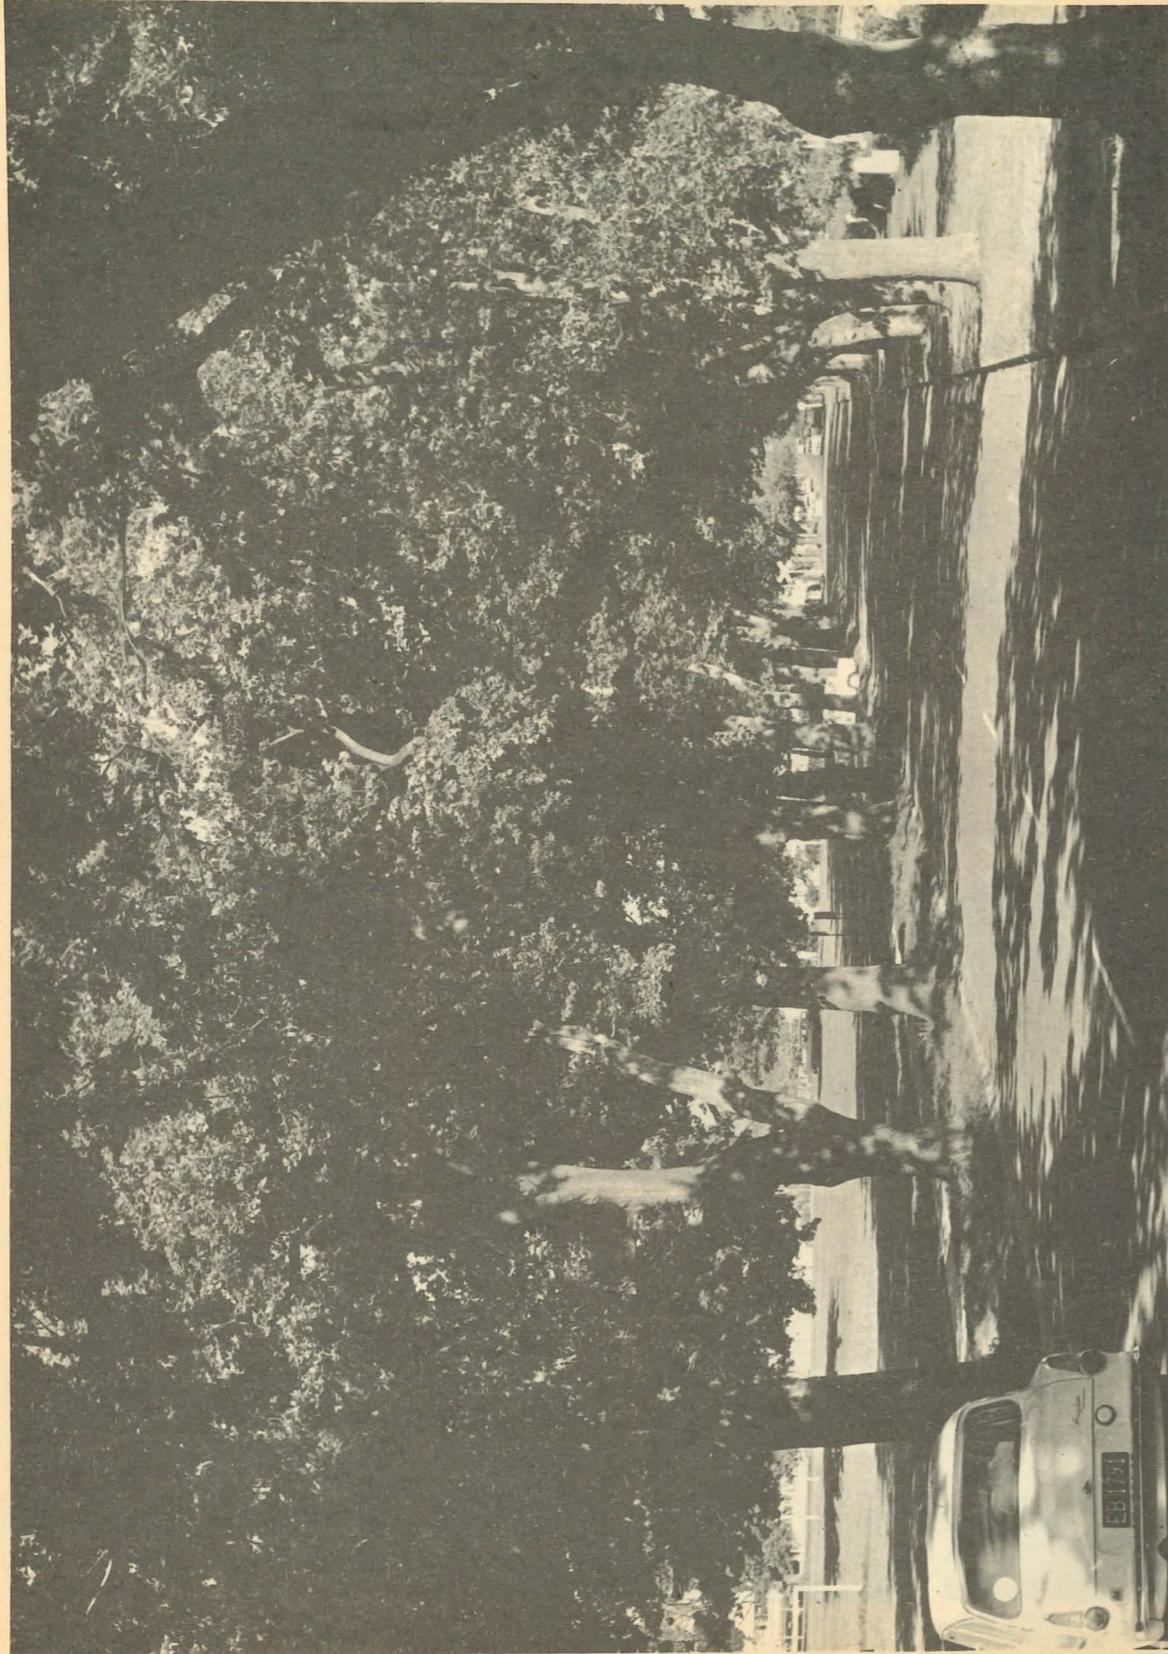

Men's singles champ David Pennifather

Most improved man was M. Oldershaw

M. Fowler partnered G. Reeves-Smith to win the ladies' handicap doubles

Shady Avenue

Welcome cool shade is provided by lines of spreading oaks in Halswell Street, near the Deer Park. This is part of a popular route taken by sightseers touring our city viewpoints.

All competitors were "browned off" thanks to the generosity of the sponsors

Lion Tournament

Nearest-the-pin champions from all Wanganui district golf clubs converged on the links at Castlecliff recently to play off for the Lion putter.

The eventual winner was Danny Wilson (on his home course) and he is pictured at RIGHT receiving his prize, a brand new putter, from Brewery sales supervisor Ray Borley (Palmerston North).

Some of the competitors pictured at the presentation to the winner

Bowls Closing

The Knox Church Indoor Bowling Club closed its season with a tournament and presentation of prizes recently.

ABOVE—Pairs winners were Archie Brown and Gwen White.

TOP RIGHT—The booby prize on guests' night went to Miss E. Allan, Mr Joe Morrison and Mrs Gladys Wilson.

RIGHT—Winners of the guests' night novelty tourney were Mrs Phil Morrison, Bert Flower, Joanne Wicks and Lorna Warren.

BELOW—Singles runner-up was R. Mills.

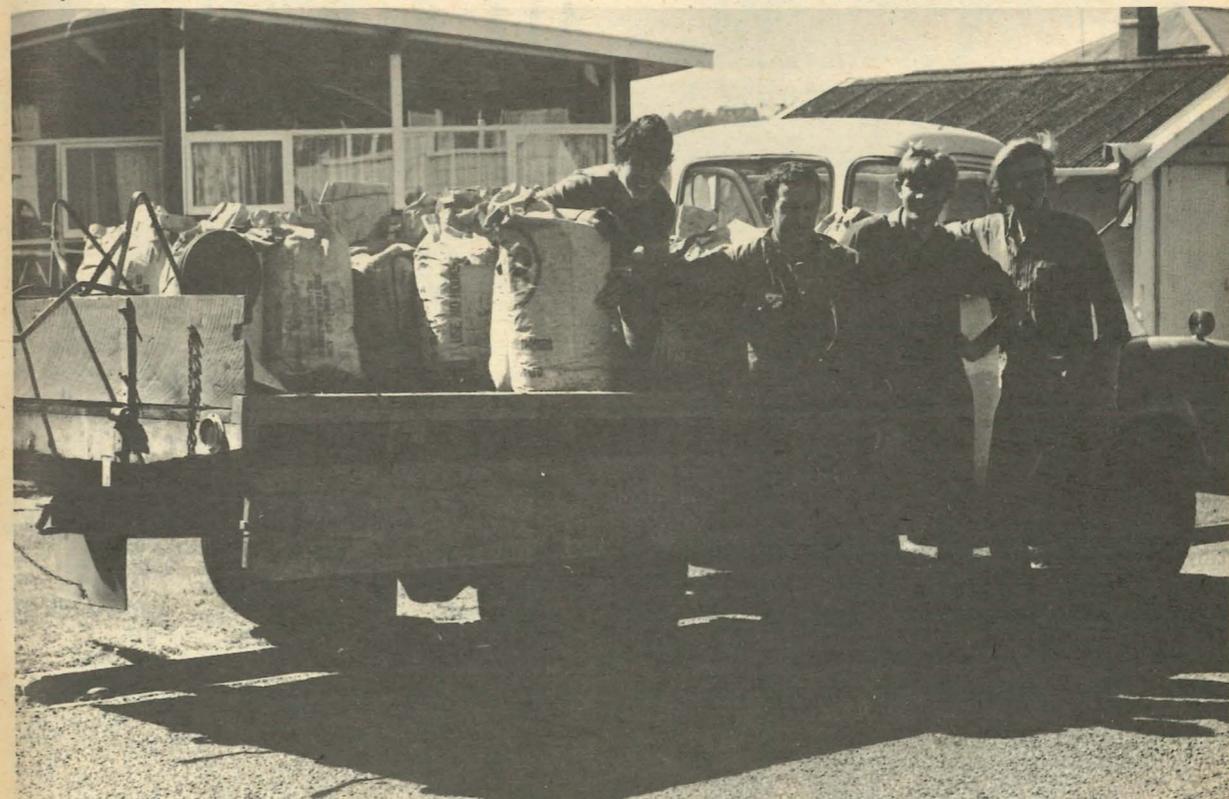

BOTTOM RIGHT—The champ four: Jean Triggett, Ian Wallace, Derek White (president) and Gwen White.

HERE & THERE

JUNIOR COACHING. The Wanganui Lawn Tennis Club has of late been running coaching classes for its junior players. Graeme Morpeth, Laurel Cook and Ken Howie are pictured here with a class.

MONEY FOR JAM. Well rather . . . money for manure. Tawhero Venturer Scouts Lesley Crosley, Bruce Reid and Geoff Anderson and Scoutmaster Robin Lloyd did the rounds recently selling farm manure at around $1 per bag. Proceeds go to developments at Scoutlands.

ALL SAINTS' GALA

ABOVE—A hive of activity at the Wanganui East All Saints' Anglican Church as a working bee erects a merry-go-round in preparation for their successful gala recently.

LEFT—Hot-dog specialist Dexter Sketcher gets things hotted up.

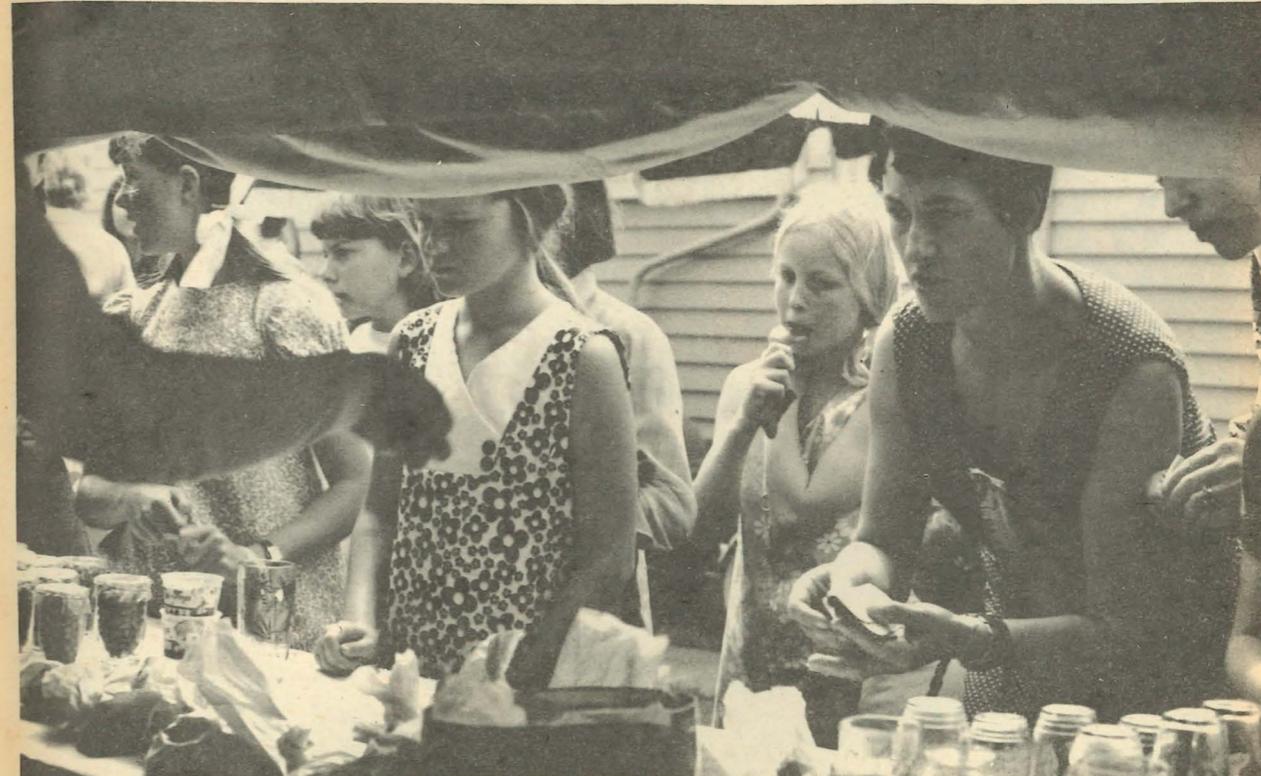

BELOW—A wee one called Anne on the roundabout.

Proudly holding two toy swans is Wendy Oram

Colin Ardell assists with the running of the spinning jenny

Plenty of custom in the sweet stall

Taking it easy in the shade were Rosemary Grindrod and Julie Austin

Mrs. H. Dallison tries a shirt against young Andrew McKinnon

Elizabeth Wilson takes a ride

Drives in the mini-moke were popular

Scores of rowers gathered at Aramoho recently for the official opening of the 1970/71 boating season. A series of sprints for fours was staged.

ABOVE—Mayor Andrews announces the official opening of the season.

Rowers and supporters listen to the speeches

ROWING OPENING

A four comprising Noble, Stubbs, Eastabrook and Coles takes to the water

AROUND TOWN

His name is McNicholl, and his mates shackled him to a Victoria Avenue post before his recent wedding.

Above—SILVER WEDDING: Len and Florence Foy, 8 Eastown Road, recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. (Contributed).

Below—MARRIED: NEWPORT—BYRNE. At the Memorial Church, Putiki, Sandra Lee Byrne, daughter of Mrs W. Nation, Melbourne, to Colin Francis, youngest son of Mr and Mrs R. F. Newport, 2 Gibbons Crescent, Wanganui. The attendants are Jill Allan and Warren Pettis, Wanganui. Future home, Auckland. (Photo News).

MARRIED

Right: LEAITUA—HAAR. At St. Vincent's Catholic Church, Castlecliff, Sandra Blanche, daughter of Mr and Mrs C. F. Haar, 17 Aotea Street, Wanganui, to Vaiuta, son of Mr L. Leaitua, Letoga, Apia, Western Samoa. Future home, Wanganui. (Robuck Studios).

Below: WILKINS—HAYNES. At Christ Church, Jillian Olive, second daughter of Mr and Mrs W. R. Haynes, 77 Harrison Street, to William Allan, second son of Mr and Mrs J. E. Wilkins, 13 Churchill Crescent. Attendants, from left, are Peter Newton, Cheryl Hogg, Susan Wilkins (niece of the groom), Debbie Haynes (sister of the bride), Dianne Hawthorne and Bruce Stewart. Future home, Wanganui. (Richards Studios).

TAWHERO CLOSING

The Tawhero Golf Club closed its 1970 season with the presentation of trophies at the Municipal Links recently. Some of the season's winners are pictured on these pages.

ABOVE—Mr and Mrs Laurie Christian present a trophy to Mrs T. Rusbridge who, with her husband, won the closing day tourney.

Nearest the pin was Mr Francis

Dundon Cup winner: Gwen Gleeson

George Clark won the Payne Cup

Betty Garner won the Lawrence Cup

Men's junior champion was Kevin Cronin

The Crysell Cup went to Nyra Lucock

Men's intermediate champion this year: Kim Sloan

Silver division champion, Mel Cunningham, with ladies' president Phil Colville

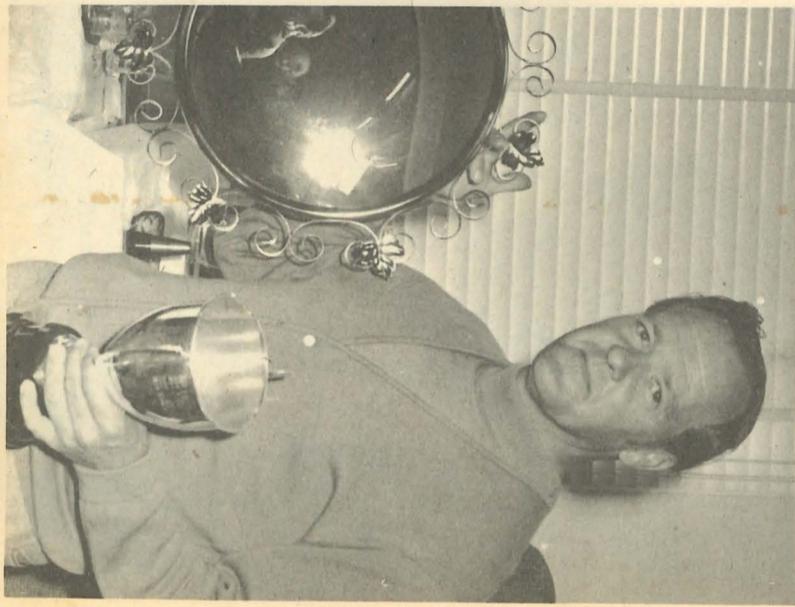

Mr. T. Tewhari and Miss P. Mead, winners of the longest drive competition

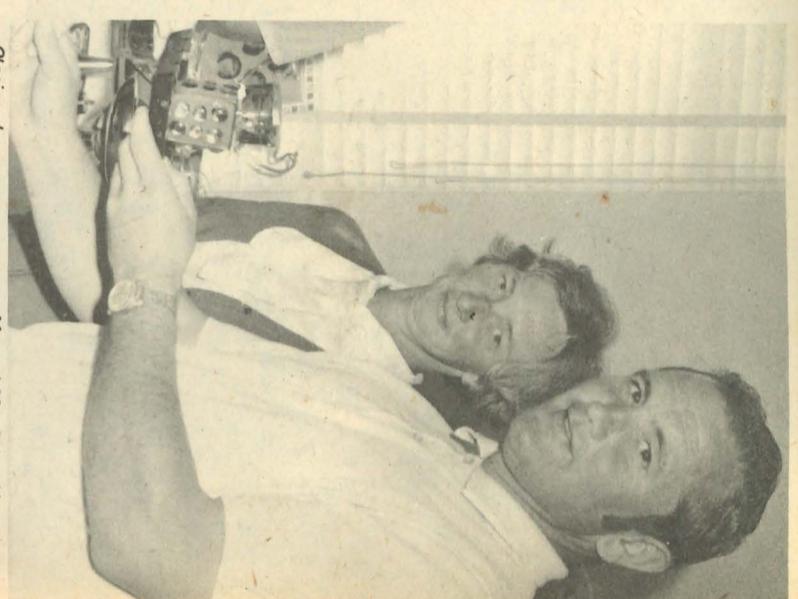

62

Men's senior champ: Graham Payne

Closing-day runners-up were Mr and Mrs Brian Hawkins

SERGEANTS' DINNER

The annual formal Mess Dinner for sergeants of 5RNZIR was held in the Army Headquarters, Wanganui, last month. Some of our candid feature guests at the dinner.

ABOVE—Sgt. T. Billing (New Plymouth), W.O.II G. M. Ball (Wanganui), Sgt. W. Perry (New Plymouth), Sgt. W. Kaitoa (New Plymouth).

All set for the formal banquet . . . the dining room

63

From Hawera came Sgt. M. Dance, Staff Sgt. P. Killen, Sgt. D. Wilkinson and W.O.II A. Nuku

W.O.II L. Gudgeon (New Plymouth), Sgt. R. Thompson (Wanganui), Staff Sgt. B. Pratt (Wanganui), W.O.II F. Daniels (Wanganui)

MIDWEEK GOLFERS

The Midweek Ladies' Golf Club closed its 1970 season at the Tawhero Links with the presentation of trophies.

ABOVE—Mrs J. A. MacFarland, along with president Shirley Wickett, presents the intermediate championship trophy to Kath Kelly.

A grade hidden hole winner was Illa Pritchard

Munro rosebowl (B grade) winner was Daphne Burnham

Top junior qualifier: Berys Taunton

B grade bogey winners were Robyn Firmin and Bessie McCormick

Ida Wilson: junior champ

Wyn Andrews won the intermediate handicap

Lorraine Story won the junior handicap

Senior top qualifier was Eileen Coxon

Pat Pedley won the improvers' cup

A grade eclectic winner was Margaret Blue

B grade eclectic winner was Beryl Higgle

Nola Hewitt: senior champ

Katie Webber: B grade hidden hole winner

Maria Watts won the A grade bogey

MARRIED

Above: JONES—CONDER. At St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Gonville, Frances Lynette, daughter of Mr and Mrs L. J. Conder, 4 Brooking Street, Wanganui, to Dennis Eric, son of Mr and Mrs C. A. Jones, 11 Bauchop Street, Lower Hutt. The attendants are Catherine Ellwood, Wellington, matron of honour, Christine Reid, Upper Hutt, Phillip Dixon, Lower Hutt, best man, Stephen Jones, Lower Hutt, and Paul Conder, Auckland, page boy. Future home, Upper Hutt. (Robuck Studios).

Below: DUFF—CORNES. At Trinity Methodist Church, Wanganui, Lynda Merle, daughter of Mr and Mrs C. E. Cornes, 164 Heads Road, Wanganui, to Russell Gordon, son of Mr and Mrs G. W. Duff, 9 Malcolm Terrace, Balclutha, Gill Neilson, Christchurch, Kathryn Tyrrell, Dunedin, flower-girl, Robin Duff, brother of the groom, best man, Ross Cornes, brother of the bride, Christchurch, and Bill Johnston, Dunedin. Future home, Dunedin. (Robuck Studios).

